Short talks were given by Rev. Grant Robbins, Judge Louis Hoffman, W. D. Fellows, campaign secretary, and George H. Scruton, editor of the Democrat-Sentinel, at the noonday luncheon when the reports of the progress of the campaign and which is published above, was made.

Does there live in Sedalia a person who doubts the liberality of her citizens, who will question the spirit of progress existing here, or who has thought the matter of raising $50,000 for a Y. M. C. A. building a hopeless

THE ELKS DID NOT MEET

"Regular Routine Business" Not Attended to Last Night.

Contrary to a "pipe dream" in a local daily, the members of Sedalia lodge No. 125, B. P. O. E, did not meet last night, and attend to "regular routine business."

Following the custom of years, the Elks will hold only one meeting a month during the summer months of June, July, August and September, the meeting being held on the first Wednesday night in the month.

"HOME" FOR LOCAL EAGLES

The Proposition to Be Discussed at Meeting Tonight.

The members of Sedalia aerie No. 601, F. O. E., will hold a special meeting tonight to consider the proposition of either building or purchasing an Eagles' home in Sedalia.

C. H. Raiffeisen, Walter Morey and W. E. Staley, comprising the building committee of the aerie, will make a report on the proposition, after which the matter will be thoroughly discussed.

Will Take Mr. Jurs' Place.

Daniel Kelly, of Joplin, Mo, will arrive here this week to assume the management of Woolworth's five and ten-cent store, during the absence of Henry C. Jurs, permanent manager, who left Wednesday for North Collins, N. Y., to visit, in company with his wife and bright little son.

Fine Box of Strawberries.

James H. Thomas, of South Ingram avenue, has the thanks of the Democrat-Sentinel for a box of the finest strawberries seen in Sedalia this season. The largest berry in the box measured seven inches in circumference.

BAR ON FLOWERS

ALL UNNECESSARY "INCIDENTALS" TO BE TABOOED AT UNIVERSITY.

STUDENTS ARE FOR SIMPLICITY

If High Schools of the Land Would Pattern After Chicago Educational Institution All Would Be Better.

Chicago, June 9.—University of Chicago students will show their preference for simplicity tomorrow evening when they attend the annual interclass hop.

The dance committee has decided to taboo all unnecessary "incidentals." The inter-class hop, which will take the place of the annual junior promenade this year, will establish a new standard at the university, as the former "proms" have called for flowers, carriages and an elaborate supper at midnight.

This year the refreshments will be served from class booths in the gymnasium and the guests are required to use the street cars or walk.

The dance will be under the management of all four classes of the university and the grand march will be led by representatives of each class.

THE CHECK WAS CROOKED

Everett Curry Was Arrested Today by Officer Bower.

Everett Curry, aged 24, a farm hand, was arrested by Police Officer J. H. Bower at 9:15 o'clock this morning, charged with forgery. The arrest was made at the Citizens' National bank at the instigation of Cashier W. H. Powell.

Curry, who claims he has a wife in California, has been employed by Mrs. Jane L. Fowler, four miles east of town. Wednesday he complained of toothache and asked permission to come to town. He did so, riding a horse owned by his employer.

He attempted to dispose of the animal to a Sedalia attorney for $50, saying he wanted the money to buy another horse. The exchange was refused.

Shortly after the bank opened this morning Curry entered and presented a check for payment. The piece of paper was made payable to Elcy Brown and was endorsed as such and bore the forged signature of Jane L. Fowler.

In one corner of the check showing the amount were the figures $55, while written across the check was the word "Eight." The word eight and the figures $55 did not conform and this aroused Mr. Powell's suspicion.

He fumbled with the check long enough to notify the police, and while the officer was arriving detained Curry in the bank. When Officer Bower arrived he placed Curry under arrest.

Meeting Place Is Changed.

The C. W. B. M. of the First Christian church, announced to meet at the home of Mrs. Fontaine Meriwether Friday at 2:30 p. m., will, on account of the condition of West Broadway, meet in the parlors of the church at the same hour. Every member of this missionary organization is urged to be present.

Adopted Conference Report in Senate.

Washington, June 9.—The conference report on the river and harbor bill was adopted in the senate today by a vote of 45 to 12.

THE COUNTRY CLUB

LIST OF EVENTS FOR THE YEAR 1910 ARRANGED BY TOURNAMENT COMMITTEE.

MR. G. A. STURGES IS CHAIRMAN

His Associates Are Hon. O. M. Barnett and Mr. F. W. Hixson—Mebbers Asked to Save the List for Future Reference.

G. A. Sturges, O. M. Barnett and F. W. Hixson, comprising the tournament committee of the Sedalia Country club, have arranged the following list of golfing events for the year 1910, and call special attention to the first event after the Memorial day tournament, to be held Saturday next, June 11:

To the Members:

The tournament committee presents the following list of golfing events for the year 1910.

It is desired that each member preserve a copy for reference.

U. S. G. A. rules shall govern all contests, unless it be found necessary to make special ground rules; if any such rules are needed, announcement thereof will be made.

In all tournaments, except where otherwise specified, play will begin at 1:30 p. m.

The committee urgently requests all players to keep score cards and deposit same in the box, in order that the committee may keep a line on the player's game and regulate his handicap accordingly.

The committee recommends the practice of taking only one ball off the first tee and otherwise playing social games in strict compliance with the rules, the same as will be done in contests for prizes.

A list of golfing events for the year 1910 follows:

1. Saturday, June 11—Scotch two-ball tournament, nine holes, match play. Play will begin at 3 o'clock p. m.; two captains will be named and they will select their teams from the members present and desiring to participate. A golf ball will be given to each member of the winning team.

2. Saturday, June 18—A golf ball will be given player handing in lowest card for nine holes, handicap. Player must hand in card for first nine holes played after 1:30 p. m.

KNOCKED OUT BY STORM

The Railroads, Telegraph and Telephone Companies.

The downpour of rain yesterday and last night put all of the streams in this section out of their banks, and did much damage to the railways, telephone and telegraph companies.

Not a train reached Sedalia on time today, and many of them were several hours late, the St. Louis and Kansas City papers not reaching here until long after the dinner hour.

Both the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies had trouble with their wires, and the same was true of the Bell and Home Telephone companies.

Manager Shields R. Smith, of the Bell, stated this afternoon that his company had over 300 'phones affected by the storm, but most of them would be in working order before night.

THE TWO INJURED MEN

They Are Doing Fully as Well as Could Be Expected.

J. W. Holtcamp and William Hogan, carpenters, who fell from a scaffold at the home of J. A. Lamy, 500 South Grand avenue, Wednesday forenoon, when G. W. Standley, another carpenter, was killed instantly by breaking his neck, are getting along very nicely at their respective homes.

Holtcamp was visited this morning by Dr. J. W. Helton, who stated it will be at least a week before the patient can leave his bed. The injuries, as stated in yesterday's Democrat-Sentinel, consist of sprains and bruises.

Hogan was able to sit up for a short time this morning at his home, 101 West Tenth street. He was visited last evening by Dr. W. C. Overstreet, who states that the hurts are not necessarily serious.

The case of Mary Walta, a 19-year-old Vienna, Austria, girl, who was arrested by the police recently, charged with stealing $200 worth of jewelry from Mrs. Mabel Kampling, an inmate of a disorderly house, had her case continued until next Monday by Police Judge James C. Connor today.

Married by Judge Hoffman

Frederick Wilckens, a barber, and Mrs. S. R. McVey, of Warrensburg, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Trapp, of that place, were married by Circuit Judge Louis Hoffman at the court house at 11:30 o'clock this morning.

SNAKE IN WINDOW

GAVE SAN ANTONIO MAN SCARE THAT HE WILL REMEMBER FOR A LONG TIME.

THE LIMB OF TREE GAVE ACCESS

That Same Afternoon Hardware Dealer There Sold 24 Sets of Window Screens, Acording to News Dispatch.

San Antonio, Texas, June 9.—Ed Guilbeau, of the county assessor's office, this city, is busy convincing his friends that a snake he saw in the window of his third-story bedroom was a member of the real and sure-enough serpent variety.

It all happened Monday morning, the aftermath of a day on which "liker" cannot be had in San Antonio for love or money, except you know just where to go. Of this knowledge Ed pleads innocent. But the snake was there, nevertheless.

The consciousness that there was something in the room that should not be there roused Ed from a fine morning slumber. Horrors! Disporting on the window sill was a snake. Ed and the snake had a second's interview. Then Ed made for a weapon and the snake for the limb of a tree that had given it access to the room.

SEDALIA IS BOOMING

Building Permits Aggregating $127,000 Issued.

Since January 1, 1910, City Engineer F. T. Leaming has issued permits for more than $127,000 worth of building and improvement of Sedalia property. In addition to this amount, about 20 per cent additional building and improvement was made for which no permit was secured, owing to the city engineer and assistant being at work in the city when the applicant called at the engineer's office.

January and February, $24,500.
March $44,125
April, $33,375.
May, $8,300.
June, $16,756.

Among the big improvements of the year were these:

Erection of an elevator and storage plant for the Harter Milling company, on West Main street; cost, $10,000.

Remodeling of Hoffman building, Fifth street and Ohio avenue, $8,000.

Three two-story residences for Sylvan and Arthur Kahn and J. Waldman, each to cost $6,000.

BE BURIED AT LAMONTE

G. W. Standley, the Carpenter Who Was Killed Wednesday.

The funeral of G. W. Standley, a carpenter, who fell from a scaffold at the home of J. A. Lamy yesterday morning, breaking his neck, will be held at Lamonte tomorrow.

The remains, accompanied by relatives, will be taken there at 7:15 o'clock tomorrow morning, then direct to the Southern Methodist church, where servces will be conducted, after which the body will be interred in the Lamonte cemetery.

The services will be under the auspices of the Modern Woodmen of America.

The following will be pallbearers: W. D. O'Bannon, J. H. Lankenau, George Walker, Edward Zoellig, Mc. Willet and John M. Woods.

WRECKED A PRISON

MISSOURI CONVICTS PRAYED WHEN THEIR HOME WAS UNROOFED.

WAS ALMOST A PANIC FOR A TIME

Only the Iron Tops of Cells Shielded 800 Prisoners From Torrents of Rain—Buildings Damaged and in Darkness.

Jefferson City, June 9.—A twisting wind struck Jefferson City last night and wrecked five of the buildings at the state penitentiary. None was killed or dangerously injured.

In a freakish way the wind swept in from the river, unroofed "E" hall, one of the new cell buildings, in which there are 800 convicts and six or eight guards.

Further on within the walled inclosure it twisted the roofs and fire walls from two other large buildings, including "A" hall.

One of the buildings wrecked was used for a kitchen, dining hall, chapel and library. Another was a factory building, occupied by the Star Clothing Co.

The electric light wires and the penitentiary light plant were put out of commission for two or three hours. A large number of guards cleaned up the wreckage and stood guard all night to see that none of the prisoners escaped. Warden Henry Andrae announced that the convicts were quiet in the wrecked cell building and were sheltered from the heavy rain still falling by the steel and concrete roofs of their cells. Only one man, a convict, was injured and he only slightly.

The wind came about 7:30 o'clock. The convicts had just been brought in from supper and locked in their cells when the rear of the storm was heard. It swept down the river with the sound of rushing water. Accompanying the wind was a heavy downpour of rain, a veritable deluge, that converted the streets of the city into creeks and rivers. The convicts beat upon the walls of their cells and

THE BODY HERE FRIDAY

That of Shelley Patterson, Drowned at Austin, Texas.

The body of Shelley Patterson, a well known young Sedalian, and a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Patterson, who was drowned in the Colorado river at Austin, Texas, Tuesday night, is expected to arrive in Sedalia on the Katy Limited tomorrow noon.

The remains will be taken to the home of the dead man's parents, 305 West Fifth street, but funeral arrangements will not be made until tomorrow, although services will probably be conducted Saturday afternoon.

Clyde Patterson, a brother of the deceased, today received a telegram from Guy Patterson, another brother, who was summoned to Austin on account of the accident, which stated that Shelley was swimming with a crowd at the time and swam away from the party. He was seized with cramps and was drowned before his absence was noticed.

The news of young Patterson's death, given in Wednesday's Democrat-Sentinel, caused universal sorrow among all who were acquainted with the young man and who had known him since childhood days in this city.

MRS. HENRY IS HOSTESS

Entertaining This Afternoon for Miss Lillie Brandt.

Mrs. Edward Henry, formerly Miss Sara Payne, is the charming hostess this afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Payne, 323 West Fourth street, to eight lady friends in compliment to Miss Lillie Brandt, who is to be married on June 15.

The Payne residence is artistically decorated for the occasion, and the dining room is especially pretty, being bedecked with the decorations used by the hostess at her marriage to Mr. Henry some months ago.

The honor guest will be presented with a pretty statue, after which refreshments will be served.

The Funeral of Mrs. Weil.

The funeral of Mrs. Johanna Weil, wife of Jacob Weil, of 667 East Fifteenth street, who died at Nevada Tuesday afternoon, will be held from the Trinity English Lutheran church tomorrow afternoon. The Rev. L. W. Sifferd, the pastor, will officiate.

The following will be pall bearers: John Lankenau, John Meyers, C. A. Meyers, George Wittlinger, John Murphy and C. Grother.

Methodist Church Struck.

Lightning struck the old church building on East Third street Wednesday afternoon, making a hole in the building, but doing no other damage.

GOODBYE, WIENER

BACK TO THE REALMS OF OBLIVION

Is Feared the Wiener Wurst Proposition Will Add to the Burden of Prohibition and So-Called Baileyism.

Austin, Tex., June 9.—Woe is Austin. No more in future will the salicious wiener wurst tickle the palate of its inhabitants. Together with free silver and the brontosaurus it has journeyed to the realms of oblivion.

And all this because Pure Food Commissioner J. S. Abbott has banished from the butcher's scrap barrel the one chemical that would keep its multitudinous contents from entering into final and odoriferous disintegration.

The butchers are nuanimous that the only representative now left them would never keep the treasure of the scrap barrel fresh enough even for the manufacture of wieners, and have promptly decided that hereafter the delicacy named after the capital of Austria shall, as far as Austin is concernd, only be a memory, albeit a doubtful one.

Denizens of the state's capital who today came for their wonted quota of wiener were told that the hot tamale would have to take its place. However, it is understood that Austin's citizenship will not stand for this invasion of their rights, and politicians all over the state now fear that the wiener wurst issue will add to the purden of prohibition and Baileyism they are sarrying.

FOR A NEW CHURCH

BAPTIST COUNCIL FAVORS ORGANIZATION AS PROPOSED AT JOPLIN, MO.

REV. F. Y. CAMPBELL WAS THERE

"Seceding" Members of First Church Repudiate Claycomb and May Proceed With Their Plans.

The latest development in connection with the organization of the Calvary Baptist church by forty-two former members of the First Baptist church was the passage Tuesday of resolutions indorsing the efforts of the new congregation and condemning former Lieutenant Governor S. H. Claycomb, a "wet" advocate in the recent local option campaign, by a council of four Baptist ministers called together to consider the situation.

This council, composed of the Rev. W. O. Anderson, of Springfield, the Rev. F. Y. Campbell, of Sedalia, the Rev. Milford Riggs, of St. Louis, and the Rev. H. E. Trails, of Carthage, met at the Yates hotel Tuesday.

It was called together, members of the Calvary congregation say, after the Rev. H. A. Smoot, of the First Baptist church, had written a number of letters criticising the members of the new congregation for their secession to prominent Baptists in all parts of the state.

In these communications, it is said, he attempted to prevent the new congregation here from obtaining the necessary sanction from the church authorities for the formation of the new church.

In order to settle the controversy it was decided to have a meting of the council here and to thoroughly discuss the situation.

This was done, both congregations being represented, and the resolution were unanimously adopted favoring the new church.

HE GOT 100 DAYS IN JAIL

Wardie Crockett, Notorious Negro, Who Made Bad Boasts.

Wardie Crockett, a notorious negro, whose police record is long and varied, arrived in Sedalia Wednesday, after an extended absence.

He first visited Prosecuting Attorney H. D. Dow, saying he intended to reform and desired permission to remain in Sedalia. Prosecutor Dow gave his consent.

Crockett then visited Chief of Police Howard Wood and the latter also acquiesced.

That suited the negro. He spent last night on the streets, and at 2 o'clock this morning meandered into a West Main street restaurant, where he made open boasts that he is a thief and intends to follow his profession.

Besides that, he said, he intended to annihilate the entire Sedalia police department.

Fred Robertson and George Thompson, patrolmen, happened on the scene at the time and heard the remark, also the one pertaining to the following of the thievery profession.

Crockett was collared and landed in the city bastile until 9 o'clock this morning, when Police Judge James C. Connor gave the prisoner an upper berth in the county jail for one hundred days.

COMMISSION GOVERNMENT.

The sixty-eight municipalities in this country now operating under the commission form of government had in 1900 a total population of 1,202,836. The indications are that between two and three times that number of people will be governed locally within the next year.

The Illinois legislature has authorized the establishment of the commission plan in any city of the state of 200,000 population or less—that is to say, in every municipality except Chicago. The probabilities are that many cities will take early advantage of the opportunity.

There are numerous cities in a number of other states that are only waiting for favorable action by their state legislatures to inaugurate the reform. The form of government authorized by the Illinois legislature is much the same as that now operative in Des Moines and other Iowa cities.

There will be no wards or districts, but a mayor and four commissioners at large will be elected by the people, and all the city's affairs will be turned over to them for a four-year term, except matters relating to the schools and parks.

All franchises must be submitted to popular vote, and provision is made for the removal of any municipal officer by the same means. No ordinance passed by the commissioners will go into effect for thirty days, during which period ten per cent of the voters can obtain referendum on the ordinance by signing a petition to that effect.

The great hindrance to the rapid advance of this movement is the influence of politicians who are opposed to substituting business methods for the present partisan control of municipalities. They have made their power felt at state capitals in preventing the passage of bills authorizing the change. Public sentiment, however, has overcome this political pull in a number of states.

PUBLICITY PAYS.

A New York manufacturer who is circularizing consumers informs them that $800,000,000 is being spent for advertising in the United States each year, and that this amounts to $10 per capita. "How would you like to save for yourself the $10 apiece that advertising is costing your family in the increased cost of commodities?" he asks. The saving, of course, is to be accomplished in part by using his unadvertied goods.

It would be just as logical for a manufacturer to solicit trade on the ground that his rivals used up to date machinery in the production of their wares, while his was antiquated; that they employed a host of salesmen, while he got along with one or two; that they had to pay freight on car load lots, while he had to pay by the hundred pounds; that their business was more costly to conduct because it was a hundred times larger than his.

Nobody saves money by buying wares in the cost of selling which there is great waste any more than by buying wares in the cost of producing which there is unnecessary and extensive waste.

Good advertising is a guarantee that selling cost is reduced to the irreducible minimum. Every effort of shortsighted or tricky venders to prove the contrary is a boomerang.

THE NEW IDEA.

Politics in New Jersey promise to become very animated this year. The progressive republican organization is an extension of the new idea wing of the party and it has already met and adopted its platform.

It condemns the Payne-Aldrich tariff as "enacted in the interest of the trusts and monopolies," and calls for a new and reformed tariff law.

This is the first time that a republican tariff law has been attacked by professed republicans in that state.

A SANE FOURTH.

The pupils of the Berkeley, N. J., public schools have decided by a vote of 154 to 48 to abolish firecrackers and fireworks for July Fourth—provided their parents give them the money the explosives would cost to spend on other things.

Since the children do not insist that the parents shall turn over the surgeons' and doctors' fees would cost, the old folks should jump at the offer. It is a good bargain.

E PLURIBUS UNUM
BEGIN NOW
ONE DOLLAR OPENS AN ACCOUNT

Many people do not realize the significance of small beginnings. The first dollar must be saved or there will never be a fortune. The only sure way to make money is to save it, save all you possibly can, put it away and forget you have it.

MONEY MAKES THE OPPORTUNITY; OPPORTUNITY MAKES THE MAN.

Be prepared to meet opportunity; save a little each week; deposit it regularly. The pleasure of watching your account grow will far more than compensate you for the small sacrifices you may have to make to get a little money ahead.

THE GROCER

The democratic convention of Wisconsin, when it meets a few weeks hence, will probably do little more than pass on a platform and discuss available timber for state offices without indorsing any particular candidate. This is chiefly due to the fact that there are expected to be several candidates in the field for each office and the ultimate choice will be left for decision in the primaries.

In connection with Governor Harmon's boom for the presidency it is recalled that only three democratic governors since 1860 have been nominated for the presidency—Samuel J. Tilden and Grover Cleveland, of New York, and George B' McClellan, of New Jersey.

A London invention is interesting medical men because it allows of examination of heart beats by telephone, and so permits a physician to treat a patient without visiting the latter. But some allowance will have to be made for heart beats over the telephone bills.

A Cincinnati lad has been taken to a hospital to have an operation performed by a surgeon to make him a better boy. Um! In the old days, when persons lived in homes instead of apartments, an operation in the back parlor by Dr. Ma, with a slipper, would have sufficed.

THE way to reckon the cost of painting is to put both costs together—the cost of paint, and of putting on.

It costs as much to put on one paint as another; if you use as many gallons of one paint as another, the putting-on cost is the same.

But if you use Devoe Lead-and-Zinc Paint you'll use less gallons by half or a third. Hundreds of cases prove that Devoe requires less gallons than any other paint for the same service.

that $50,000 Y. M. C. A. building in Sedalia.

Starting with the generous donation of $10,000 to the Y. M. C. A. by Mrs. S. E. Cotton as an impetus, the determination of the campaign workers was to secure subscriptions to an equal amount before the close of the first day. Despite a continuous downpour of rain throughout the entire day and night, making the canvas difficult, and creating a disposition that would seem to be discouraging, to say the least, the workers entered the fray with fire in their eyes and ginger in the spirit of fighting against these odds, and at 9 o'clock last night the amount of subscriptions taken equaled the subscription of Mrs. Cotton, making a grand total of $20,000 subscribed before the close of the first day. When the siren whistle of the Monarch laundry blew those thirty-four blasts shortly after 1 o'clock yesterday, announcing the amount subscribed up to that time as $17,000, and then less than an hour later two more long blasts were heard, indicating that to this amount another thousand had been added, there were a few who did not understand the meaning of this continued whistling and thought some great calamity had occurred. It is safe to say that not one person who understood that each blast meant the addition of $500 to the fund, was not proud of the fact that Sedalia has regained her old-time generosity and will hasten the reaching of the goal for a Y. M. C. A. building, whether that person was a contributor or not.

With the ball already nearly in the center of the field, the workers in this movement are trying to kick the goal long before the final day, June 18th. With only $27,371 to raise, the leaders in the campaign see no reason for stretching the work out longer than necessary. The clock is set for midnight of June 18th, but no one favors making a wire finish. That sort of thing is all right when there is no way to win, but Sedalia doesn't have to give that sort of an exhibition.

"We have already reached that stage of the campaign where it is just as easy to win in six days as in ten," W. D. Fellows, campaign secretary said today. "The money is here, the people of Sedalia are grasping this opportunity, and it is only necessary to go out and get the subscriptions. There is no use dragging along taking small amounts daily, and I would like to see the fund closed with Sedalia's old-time fire and spirit before the time limit. John Montgomery, Jr., and myself, who are old-time Y. M. C. A. men in Sedalia, are practicing a duet to sing when the $50,000 is reached, and we are in a hurry to start that song."

Hundreds of people looked at the dial of the clock today and yesterday. Some walked several blocks to know the result—the hands will change only once each day—snortly after 1 p. m.—just after the close of the noonday luncheon, when reports are received from all committees and teams.

The ambition of each leader and worker will be to lead in the amount of subscriptions taken, and to this end all intending subscribers are requested to be ready to sign for the proposed amount when one or more of the workers call upon you. They are men whose time is valuable, and are sacrificing their own affairs to work in this campaign for the uplifting of young men and boys of the present Sedalia, and to those who will be future Sedalians. Get into the band of boosters, help push along the wonderful spirit of progress and generosity which this campaign has started.

HEIRESS ENTICED AWAY

Elizabeth Rogers Had $5,000 in Cash and Jewelry.

Philadelphia, June 9.—More mystery has been added to the disappearance of 19-year-old Elizabeth Rogers, heiress to $25,000, from her home by the statement of her father, Hugh Rogers, that she carried away with her about $5,000 in cash, besides jewelry valued at several hundred dollars.

The police are working on a theory that the girl has been enticed away from her home by two Italians in a plot to rob her.

Mr Rogers has increased his reward for her recovery from $500 to $1,000. Mrs. Rogers, the mother, who died three years ago, left $25,000 to the girl.

According to the stipulations of the bequest, the girl could only touch the income.

DO IT NOW

Sedalia People Should Not Wait Until it Is Too Late.

The appalling death rate from kidney disease is due in most cases to the fact that the little kidney troubles are usually neglected until they become serious. The slight symptoms give place to chronic disorders and the sufferer goes gradually into the grasp of diabetes, dropsy, Bright's disease, gravel or some other serious form of kidney complaint.

If you suffer from backache, headaches, dizzy spells; if the kidney secretions are irregular of passage and unnatural in appearance, do not delay. Help the kidneys at once.

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for kidney disorders—they cure where others fail. Over one hundred thousand people have recommended them. Here's a case at home:

Mrs. Ellen McNeil, 803 E. Broadway, Sedalia, Mo., says: "I suffered a great deal from kidney and bladder trouble and had pains in the small of my back and hips. My rest was often disturbed and I arose in the morning feeling lame and sore. I generally felt tired and languid and I sometimes noticed a swelling beneath my eyes. I tried several remedies, but was not helped until a neighbor told me about Doan's Kidney Pills. I procured a box at Bard's Drug Store and the results of their use were better than I had expected. In a short time I was in good health. I gladly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

WON A FAIR BRIDE

ANOTHER INTERNATIONAL ALLIANCE CELEBRATED IN LONDON TODAY.

LOST ANOTHER AMERICAN GIRL

Miss Mildred Carter Married to Archibald Charles Montague Brabazon at the Fashionable St. George's Church.

London, June 9.—Fashionable St. George's church, on Hanover square, was the scene today of another international matrimonial alliance, when Miss Mildred Carter, a beautiful American girl, became the bride of Archibald Charles Montague Brabazon, Viscount Acheson, eldest son of the fourth Earl of Gosford and descendant of a long line of Irish notables.

The ceremony was witnessed by diplomats representing all the important nations of the earth, the bride's father, John Ridgely Carter, having long been secretary of the American embassy in London and highly popular in diplomatic circles. He is now envoy of the United States to the Balkan countries—Roumania, Bulgaria and Servia—and makes his residence in Bucharest.

St. George's, where the marriage rites were performed, is a veritable temple of Hymen and has been the scene of many aristocratic weddings. Col. and Mrs. Roosevelt were married there nearly twenty-five years ago. Five years ago Viscount Acheson's sister, Lady Alexandra, was married to the late Earl Derbys son at the same church.

The demand for seats at today's wedding was so great that many were disappointed. The stream of wedding presents was almost as great and magnificent as those received by Viscount Maidstone and his bride, Miss Drexel, who were married in London yesterday.

Like Viscount Maidstone, the Viscount Acheson is an eldest son and will inherit an earldom upon the death of his father, the Earl of Gosford.

The founder of this noble family in Ireland was Sir Archibald Acheson, baronet, of Gosford, County Haddington, who lived during the first part of the seventeenth century. He obtained a grant of large estates in the counties of Armagh and Cavan, Ireland, and considerable property in the province of Nova Scotia.

Other and later ancestors of today's bridegroom received ttles of Baronet of Nova Scotia, 1648; Baron Gosford, 1776; Viscount Gosford, 1785, and Earl of Gosford, 1806. The title of Viscount Acheson dates from 1847.

The father of the bridegroom is the fourth earl and was long lord of the bedchamber of the Prince of Wales, now King George V.

WOMAN PROMOTED

WORKS FOR THE 'FRISCO RAILWAY

Been at Fort Scott, Kansas, for Several Years, but Has Now Been Transferred to St. Louis Headquarters.

Fort Scott, Kan., June 9.— Miss Clara Kascheur, who for some time has been employed in the 'Frisco offices here as timekeeper of this division, has learned of a promotion which is to be made by the company, and she is vitally interested, inasmuch as she is to be the beneficiary.

She has been promoted to the position of head timekeeper of the 'Frisco road, and her official title is to be traveling timekeeper of the 'Frisco route. She will report at St Louis today and begin her duties. The promotion is quite an honor and much the more so because she is a woman—a business woman in every sense of the word, who has saved the 'Frisco money every day that she has worked.

She began work in the offices here several years ago and went through a gradual promotion until she had reached the office of head timekeeper at this place. She has been on duty for some time in that position and had complete control of the time checks of the men under the supervision of this division.

She worked well and did her work in a thooughly efficient manner. She is a money saver for the system. That is why she got the present job. It is estimated by those about the office that she has saved the system between $15.000 and $20,000 every year that she has been employed as timekeeper at that office.

The position is a large one. It is the goal for which every person in th etimekeeping department strives, and is gotten through much competition. There are at least two or more persons employed in the timekeeping department on every division, and on the 'Frisco there are at least six divisions, over all of which she will have direct charge.

Here she has been under the supervision of Superintendent T. B Coppage, but in the new position she recognizes no authority except that of the vice president and general manager and general officers above. For the work she is to receive over $100 per month and expenses. She is to report to Vice President W. C. Nixon at his offices today and begin work. It will be her duty to inspect the work of the employes under her.

GOOD ROADS' TALK

THIS IS THE PLATFORM OF CANDIDATE IN LAFAYETTE COUNTY, MISSOURI.

WANTS TO BE PRESIDING JUDGE

Judge John Henry Green, of Odessa, Says That Work Should Be Done on the Highways Wherever It Is Needed.

Higginsville, Mo., June 9.— The "working" of country roads is the platform upon which Judge John Henry Green, of Odessa, has declared his intention of running for presiding judge of the county court of Lafayette county. In announcing his candidacy Judge Green said:

"Farmers are allowed to work out their poll taxes when they care to. Naturally they put it off until the last minute. The result is that much road work is done in the late fall, when, in most cases, it does little good and sometimes harm.

"Every county could have fairly good roads if great care were taken in the selection of road overseers, and the overseers were instructed to see to it that all poll tax work should be done within certain specified months, that arrangements were made with reliable farmers to drag the roads after every rain."

Judge Green says he has been studying the road question for twelve years.

This is true the world over where this valuable remedy has been introduced. No other medicine in use for diarrhoea or bowel complaints has received such general approval. The secret of the success of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy is that it cures. Sold by all dealers.

NEWS OF THE RAIL

ROCK ISLAND PUTS ON TWELVE SOLID, ALL-STEEL PASSENGER TRAINS.

COACH, CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

Commencing with their new summer time card Sunday the Rock Island will introduce in Kansas and in the West a feature in modern railroading that has never before been attempted on such a large scale by any railroad system—that is, to run twelve solid all-steel pasenger trains, says the Topeka, Kan., Journal.

During the last few months the Rock Island has been steadily equipping their through trains with the new all-steel equipment—cars that are constructed of steel from the underframe to the top of the roof. With their recent orders for more cars and the initiation of their new summer time card the Rock Island will equip all of their trains through Topeka with the all-steel cars.

Imagine a train pulling into a station with a massive Pacific type trailer locomotive (not a piece of wood in the entire construction) followed with a mail car, a smoker, two chair cars and two Pullmans—all these care looking like miniature battleships on wheels.

This is just what you will see on the Rock Island after Sunday. The road has placed orders with the steel car comptnies for hundreds of these cars, and it is but a question of a short time until all of the Rock Island equipment on all of the trains, with the exception of a few branch line plugs, will be made up entirely of steel cars.

To the passenger who has never taken a trip in one of these steel cars it is hard to imagine their construction and their safety. However, the Rock Island has been using a number of these cars in their Topeka service and several people have had occasion to use them in their trips to the west and to the east.

These new all-steel cars are called "indestructible" and it has been proven in two wrecks of the Rock Island that it is almost impossible to smash and destroy one of these new passenger coaches. In one wreck the wreckage took fire and every car on both sides of an all-steel coach was burned to the trucks. In another wreck three cars fell down afifty-foot embankment and all were smashed into kindling wood with the exception of the steel chair car filled with passengers—and a few broken windows constituted the entire damage to this car. No one was hurt.

The new steel coaches are non-wreckable and non-breakable. They are built of solid steel. The cars are first made in a heavy steel frame—a massive underframe with steel girders running the entire length of the car for protection against collisions and a heavy steel frame for the superstructure.

On the floor of the steel under frame is spread solid concrete. This is covered with rubberoid and makes the car floors. The sides and the roof of the car are steel—the only wood in the coach is around the window frames and a small veneer between the windows on the inside.

There is no wood on the outside of the cars. When they are pulled into the station they look like huge armored cruisers—the steel plates run from the underframe up and over the roof, securely rivited on the outside. This gives the cars a massive appearance. With solid steel construction, cement floors and heavy, six-wheel trucks, together with electric lights, electric fans, new patent ventilators airing out the car every few minutes, there is on the road an equipment that cannot be improved upon in the United States.

Some of the eastern roads have adopted this steel equipment. The Pennsylvania has started out an all-steel train between Chicago and eastern points. In the West the Union Pacific has placed a number of the cars on their lines, but not to such a great extent as the Rock Island. It is safe to say that no railroad in the world has taken such a long move along this line as the Rock Island—and they are giving the people of the West the benefit of it all.

To witness a heavy solid all-steel passenger train travel over the Kansas prairies and out into the deserts and up into the mountains is a feat that signifies a new era in the railroading of this country.

THE DEAD CARPENTER

Brief Biograyhical Sketch of the Late George W. Standley.

George W. Standley, the carpenter killed at the Lamy building Wednesday, was born near Springfield, Mo., Sept. 28, 1864, the youngest child of eight born to Joseph and Nancy Standley. He spent most of his early life near Urbana. On March 7, 1894, he and Miss Mollie Fleming were united in marriage at Lamonte, Mo. They lived near Urbana one year, when they moved to Lamonte, living near Lamonte for about nine years, after which they removed to Sedalia, where they have lived ever since.

Seven children were born of the union only three of whom survive, with their mother, to mourn the loss of an affectionate father and husband. Three of the children died in infancy, the fourth, Mary Lucile, being 5 years and 6 months old at the time of death.

The surviving members of the family are Ollie May, Edith Eleanor and George Franklin, only son of the union.

Deceased was a Christian gentleman. He joined the United Brethren church 20 years ago, giving himself to God when a young man. In 1894 he joined the Methodist church at Lamonte, serving his Master as Sunday school superintendent, living a consecrated life. In 1908 he moved his membership to Epworth M. E. church in Sedalia.

PAPERS TO WALSH

THAT IS WHAT NEGRO WOMAN WHO FOUND THE HYDE NOTES SAYS.

BAR ASSOCIATION IS "PROBING"

Trying to Ascertain Whether the Papers Were Stolen or Lost—Story Told by Wife of Peter Finney.

The wife of Peter Finney, the negro janitor, made a statement yesterday before the committee of the Bar association, which is investigating the loss of the grand jury papers in the Hyde case, says the Kansas City Times. After the examination she told the Kansas City Times:

"My husband found those papers as he was coming home from work one night. I looked through them and saw they had something to do with the Hyde case.

"Right there was where one of the lawyers tried to fool me. He asked me how I knew they were connected with the Hyde case and he asked me that several times, just as if I wasn't telling the truth about it. Why, anybody could have told that, with the newspapers so full of it. The papers were just like some of the depositions taken in Mr. Walch's office and I thought that was what they were.

"The next day I advertised the finding of the papers in the Star. Several persons came to my house and asked if they could see the notes. I refused as they were unable to show sufficient authority. None of the three who came to my house would give me his name. Finally a man came who said he was from Mr. Walsh's office. He gave me his name but I have forgotten it. He also presented one of Mr. Walsh's cards and said Mr. Walsh would stop in for the papers in the morning.

"When Mr. Walsh came I turned the papers over to him. He told me if any one called for them to say that I had given them to Frank P. Walsh. That is what happened and that is what I todl the committee. It took me three hours to tell it, though, with those lawyers always arguing and saying questions."

Saloon Thought No. 414

If you are prosperous, and making money hand over hand, then you can afford to booze, but if it hustles you to make both ends meet at the end of the month, then you have no excuse for drinking, and if you do it ANYHOW, you can not have your earnings for actual necessities.

Now this holds equally true with SEDALIA. We have no earnings except our railroads. What else have we, just think of it. Stop our railroads and we would be RUINED. Now take some other city our size, and they do not depend WHOLLY on its railroads, hence they have more earning capacity than WE do. They can afford the waste of the saloon business. We are not so flush with money that we can deplete the community of $30,000.00 a month, and then keep even with the game, and then pay such a tax rate to take care of the saloon's charges. We do not have the manufacturing industries that many other cities have, and that's why our saloon business hurts us as it does.

THIS IS THE HEAVIEST WAGER SO FAR ON THE JEFFRIES-JOHNSON BATTLE.

ALMOST 2 TO 1 IS MIGHTY GOOD

Man Who Placed His Money on the Ex-Champion Has More Coin to Put Up, He Says, at the Same Big Odds.

Chicago, June 9.—The largest wager made so far in Chicago, if not in the country, on the coming Jeffries-Johnson fight, has been made between Andy Craig and Edward Dickinson. Craig bet $10,000 against $6,000 that Jeffries would win.

The bet had its inception at the Congress hotel, when a party of sporting and professional men met for a social hour and in the course of the conversation the coming battle between Jeffries and Johnson was one of the points discussed. The subject resulted in an argument between Craig and Dickinson.

"The black won't have have a look in," Craig said, smilingly.

"Is that so?" snorted Dickinson.

"How certain are you of that, Andy?"

"Oh, about 10 to 6 worth," replied Craig.

"I'll take $6,000 at that price," was Dickinsons reply.

The agreement was drawn and the money placed with George Lederer, who afterward, with the consent of Craig and Dickinson, turned it over to Charley Herman, who is to act as final stakeholder.

After putting up the money Craig asserted he was looking for more at the same price.

SUICIDE AFTER A HUNT

H. B. Kay, of St. Joseph, Shot Himself in a Hotel in Pocatello, Id.

Pocatello, Id., June 9.—Harry B. Kay, 34 years old, who, until recently, was cashier of a bank in Pasadena, Cal., shot himself in a hotel here yesterday. Kay was on his way to his home in St. Joseph, Mo., having finished a hunting trip in Idaho. The cause of the suicide is unknown.

St. Joseph, Mo., June 9.—So far as can be learned, Harry B. Kay, whose suicide in Idaho is reported, had not lived in St. Joseph since he was a boy. He was a son of Mrs. Eliza Kay, who died a year ago, and a brother of Barney Kay, who is connected with the John S. Brittain Dry Goods company, and Mrs. Eliot Spalding, wife of a St. Joseph attorney. Neither of Kay's relatives could tell of any motive for the suicide.

THE SPLICING OF NERVES

Paralysis Cure Explained to Medical Association in St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., June 9.—Nerve splicing was one of the themes which occupied the attention of the American Medical association yesterday.

Dr. W. W. Grant, of Denver, urged it as a cure for paralysis. He asserted that paralysis can be overcome by surgery, and demonstrated by means of a case in which the narve of motion in the face had ben severed by a bullet, causing paralysis of half the face and one shoulder.

The paralysis was cured by splicing the stump of the severed nerve to another nerve of motion in the face. The patient recovered entirely.

DEATH LIST LARGE

BETWEEN AUTOS AND STREET CARS MANY LIVES ARE SACRIFICED.

STEAM CARS ARE NO LONGER IN IT

The Safety of Pedestrians in Chicago Only Secured By Eternal Vigilance—Going From Bad to Worse.

Chicago, Ill., June 9.—The increase of hazard of life in Chicago by the advent of the automobile and really rapid surface street cars is shown by figures giving a total number of persons killed by autos in five months during 1910 of 12, and injured of 250, by street cars 45 killed and 1,450 injured.

During the entire year of 1909, 23 persons were killed and 531 injured by automobiles, the record for the first five months indicating that 1910 will have a total casualty roll many times greater than any prevous year.

Street cars also have a worse record than ever before, the killing during 1910 totaling 46 as against 43 in 1909. The railroads have killed 96 and injured 252 already during 1910, and during all of last year slaughtered 217 and injured 684.

Most of the automobile accidents have been due to the uncontrolled speed at which the machines have been driven. Safety for the pedestrian is only secured by eternal vigilance. Captain Charles C. Healy has been sent to Europe to study the movement of street traffic there, but meanwhile conditions have been going from bad to worse.

One death after another has been declared by the coroners' juries to be due to the speed mania, and yet the automobiles continue to whiz through the streets and around corners without any drastic measures being taken to prevent it.

Particularly in the residence district patrolmen are comparatively few and danger has become acute. Some blame for this is laid upon the state licensing of cars which lessens the authority of the police. Officers mounted on motorcycles are able to capture chaffeurs who have knocked down and injured some one, but this does not serve to prevent the accident.

For years the public clamored for the restoration of the delapidated street car tracks, but now that they are rebuilt and equipped with new and swift cars the public clamor is even greater at the havoc they are making.

In reports from Captain Healy, in London and Paris, he points out that obedience to the orders of the constables and gendarmes is almost implicit and that consequently the teeming millions are able to move about those cities with comparatively little trouble. This, notwithstanding the fact that in most continental cities a pedestrian who impedes the passage of a carriage or motor car is fined and the vehicle is given full right of way on the streets, even those no wider than alleys of American cities.

LOS ANGELES POLICE THINK THEY HAVE A FALLEN KANSAS BANKER.

HE HAD A SHORTAGE OF $200,000

Was Sent to Prison, but Was Pardoned—The Experience, However, Did Not Keep Him in Straight Path.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 9.—The police here say James A. Woodbury, who was arrested in Chicago recently on a charge of raising a worthless check and brought here, is J. E. Marcell, wanted in Kansas City for having borrowed $10,000 on fictitious collateral.

Following Wodbury's return from Chicago in charge of a detective, Chief of Police Galloway began an investigation of his record.

Chief Galloway asserted that with the aid of the Bertillon system, the assistance of Warden J. K. Codding of the penitentiary at Lansing, Kan., and the discovery of various connecting links, the identification of Woodbury as Marcell, the ex-banker, is complete. Chief of Police Snow of Kansas City has been notified.

Following the looting of the state bank at Highland, Kan., of $200,000. Marcell, cashier of the institution was found guilty on five counts of forgery and sentenced on May 27, 1904, to an indeterminate term of five to thirty-five years in the penitentiary at Lansing.

He was discharged on February 25, 1907, on a pardon procured through the efforts of friends. Then he went to Kansas City, according to the information given by Codding, and engaged in business. He is alleged to have gained the confidence of a number of business associates and after borrowing from them $10,000 on worthless paper, fled from the city.

As cashier of the Bank of Highland, Marcell gained the friendship and good will of the business men of Highland, Kan., and at Troy by his liberal use of money. He was the town's friend and always gave liberally to church and public funds. No one knew how or when his use of the bank's money began. He owned the finest house in Highland. He bought an $800 team of horses and kept a coachman. Finally an examination of his books disclosed a shortage of almost $200,000.

Marcell pleaded guilty to forgery in 1904 and was sent to the Kansas penitentiary. His sentence was commuted, he was released and came to Kansas City. Marcell disappeared later from Kansas City. He was accused of defrauding a bank out of $25,000. That was in May, 1909, and nothing has since been heard from him.

The police of Kansas City had not received word from Los Angeles last night.

KICKED OUT OF LEAGUE

Sent Back to the Tall and Uncut By Unscrupulous City Snobs.

Last night in St. Louis(at a meeting of the manageers of the Missouri-Illinois league, Manager Willott and his Signals were kicked out of the league and sent back to the forests of North Central Missouri, says the Moberly Democrat. The action was as high-handed a piece of jobbery as was ever pulled off by a bunch of city snobs who know about as much about genuine baseball as an ordinary Hotentot knows of the ten commandments.

Mr. Willott had entered into a contract with the M.-I. league managers for a season's trial win them, with the understanding that if he did not make good he would not ask admission next season. He paid his money in and absolutely was making good from every standpoint.

But the city snobs were not used to the pure country air nor the fragrance of the wild roses and honeysuckles. They wanted to stay amid the dirt and smoke and the smut of the city, where they could spend their Sunday evenings smoking cigarettes, drinking stale booze and casting "goo-goo" eyes at the soiled doves who frequent such resorts.

Let 'em go! Good riddance to bad rubbish, and in the meantime Manager Willott is framing up to get a series of games with Macon, St. Charles and Jefferson City, any one of which teams is capable of putting up a first class exhibition of the national game.

SANG 'SWAN SONG'

THE CHORUS WAS SO DOING AT THE TIME MAN SUICIDED IN A THEATER.

ORCHESTRA LEADER KEPT HIS HEAD

Immediately After the Shot Two Unidentified Men and a Stylishly Dressed Woman Hastened From the Box.

New York, June 9.—At the moment when the Jersey Lilies Burlesque company was singing the "Swan Song" at the close of the performance in the Columbia theater, at 11 o'clock Tuesday night, the sound of a shot was heard above the music.

From an upper box to the left of the stage smoke curled across toward the descending curtain. The audience was startled, but the orchestra leader, with presence of mind, urged the music into louder volume and prevented a panic.

Lying prone in the box nearest the stage, from which two unidentified men and a stylishly dressed woman had hastened, the moment the shot was fired, the body of a man was found.

He was about forty years old, fully six feet tall, weighing two hundred pounds, and dark. He had committed suicide.

In his pockets was found a letter addressed to "The police and the coroner." It was signed Charles Talbert and bore the address, No. 568 Park avenue.

MUCH IDLE MONEY

THIS IS THE REPORT THAT WE GET FROM REPUBLIC OF MEXICO.

INACTIVE FUNDS IN THE BANKS

'Tis Said the Total Will Aggregate $85,000,000—Mexico Is Approaching a Crisis, Due, It Is Alleged, to Over Prosperity.

Mexico City, Mex., June 9.—Because there is too much idle money in the republic, Mexican banks have inaugurated a somewhat novel method of forcing it into the industrial and development market. The measure employed is the simple one of declining to pay interest on idle bank deposits.

The pioneers in this move are the National Bank of Mexico, a government institution; the Central Bank of Mexico, and the Bank of London and Mexico.

It is claimed on good authority that the inactive funds in the Mexican banks amount to over $85,000,000, and this will be added to considerably except it is possible to find an outlet for some of the cash or get depositors to withdraw their money for the purpose of investment.

In short, Mexico seems to be approaching a crisis due to over-prosperity in certain circles. A great deal of the money accumulated was derived from the sale of large tracts of land, acquired for the greater part by Americans.

The tendency of this has been to throw a great deal of money into the country without taking anything out of it. In the meantime the credit of the government has become better than it ever was before, so much so, in fact, that foreign financiers have offered to convert the country's 5 per cent foreign gold debt into a loan bearing only 4 or at the most 4½ per cent interest.

Should this be done a lively rise in the silver market may be looked for, and Mexico, as the biggest producer of silver, would again benefit.

Separate Because of Husband's Devotion to Ethereal Goddess.

Minneapolis, Minn., June 9.—Because he has a spirit affinity with whom he flirts at inopportune times, it is alleged Richard Bowler, of Minneapolis, is being sued for divorce in the Hennepin county district court by May Belle Bowler.

In her complaint, Mrs. Bowler alleges that at the theater neither mirth nor music will attract him from his spiritual love, and in street cars he humiliates her greatly by flirting with his ethereal goddess.

Both the Bowlers are spiritualists and members of the cult say that this is one of the rare instances in which a marriage "by suggeston" has proved unstable

American League Makes Agreement With Union Officials.

Cleveland, Ohio, June 9.—The union labor boycott on American league baseball parks, where the Cleveland team plays, has been lifted by an agreement entered into between Ban Johnson, president of the American baseball league, and officials representing the American Federation of Labor and the local unions of Cleveland.

The terms of the agreement are that in all American league baseball parks no cigars shall be sold without the union label and that all printing ordered by the league clubs shall be given to union shops.

It is also provided that any stands erected or other structural work taken in hand by the clubs shall be entrusted solely to union labor.

Manager Shay Appears to Be Stalking Abroad in the Land With a Chip on His Shoulder—He May Be Called.

Louisville, Ky., June 9.—President Thomas M. Chivington, of the American association, was here for the flag raising last afternoon, which marked the first game of the series with the Blues.

With reference to the special dispatch from Columbus, stating that Manager Shay and Players Swann, Love, Barbeau and Hunter would be reported by Umpires Bierhalter and Guthrie, with recommendation for suspension, following the trouble in Tuesday's game there, President Chivington said he had received no official report before leaving Chicago whatever action he might take in mwhatever action he might take in the proceedings would be postponed until his return to Chicago today, when he expects to find the report on his desk.

While he would make no further statement about this matter, it is probable that Chivington will quiz Shay and the other Blues as to their side of the difficulty Tuesday.

The Blues did not arrive from Columbus until shortly after noon yesterday. It was announced that Clagle and Schreck would be the Louisville battery, while Rhodes and Ritter were expected to work for the visitors.

The local club has several deals on, including the disposal of Outfielder Henry Myers, and a trade may be made with Owner Tebeau, of the Blues.

Free Dyspepsia Sample

Sufferers from indigestion are waking up to the fact that peppermint lozenges, charcoal and "dyspepsia cures" are only makeshifts in the cure of so troublesome a complaint as chronic indigestion. What is required is something that will not only relieve but which will tone and train the digestive apparatus to again do its work normally, and this these simple remedies cannot do.

There is something more to the cure of indigestion than sweetening the breath, and yet a remedy that only contains digestive ingredients will not cure permanently, as the basis of indigestion is poor bowel circulation, and that requires a scientific laxative. We know of no remedy that combines these requirements better than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which has been sold for a quarter of a century.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a laxative tonic, a scientific blending of natural ingredients for the cure of constipation, indigestion, liver trouble, sour stomach, sick headache and similar complaints. Its ingredients will so strengthen and tone the stomach and bowel muscles that they will again do their work naturally, and when that has been accomplished your trouble is over. Fannie Stuart, Staunton, Va., was a long-time sufferer, as was O. Tuck, Blackburn, Mo., and they both found their cure with this remedy. They became convinced that pills and tablets, salts, "dyspepsia cures," etc., were at best only temporary reliefs. They first accepted Dr. Caldwell's offer of a free sample bottle, which he willingly sends to anyone who forwards name and address. Later, having convinced themselves through the free sample, they bought Syrup Pepsin of their druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R. 509 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

QUESTION: WHAT DOES IT MEAN

Question—What does what mean?

Answer—"Our Customers' Profit-Sharing Store."

Answer—It means this—that every time you purchase goods you make the merchant you buy from a profit. He ought to make and does make a profit above the original cost and all expenses incident to conducting the business.

Question—But what does "Cain's Profit-Sharing" mean to me?

Answer—This: if you buy goods from Cain you make Cain a profit; that profit is Cain's, and he can do what he pleases with that profit; if he pleases to divide that profit with you, who made it for him; he pleases to do just what he believes is right and what he has a perfect right to do. Now, Cain pleases to do that very thing with you, reader, if you please to give him the chance. He will sell you anything from one pound of coffee to a carload of the very best quality of groceries; everything you use, however little or much, as low as any other merchant here or elsewhere, and over and above this, he will go down in his pocket and get the cash and pay you back what he believes is your part of the profit. Some who have tried it have asked: How can he afford to do this? His answer—What difference does it make to you how he can afford to do it, so he does it, and he does it, don't he? Their answer—Yes. The truth is, no man can afford NOT to do what he believes he ought to do, if it is in his power to do it. It is certainly in my power to do it, if you make the purchase of me, and because I believe it is right, it is my pleasure to do it, and I will do it and am doing it more and more as the days go by. This is Cain's way, and he is going to do it this way or not at all, whether it makes him money or whether it doesn't. He brought no money into this world and if he has none when he leaves it, he'll be no poorer than thousands who have already gone and who were a great deal better and more worthy than he.

I heartily thank those who have already given me the opportunity to prove my assertions and those in advance who will be kind enough to do so.

some of them prayed aloud and shrieked. The guards who walk the long halls did what they could to quiet them. It was several minutes after the storm passed before quiet was restored.

Fire broke out in the Sullivan saddle tree factory and was burning fiercely before it was discovered. This was extinguished without serious damage to the building or to Sullivan's stock. It was necessary to bring out a large force of convicts under heavy guard to fight the flames.

One of the walls of the building occupied by the Star Clothing Co. is leaning out about two feet. James Hinchin, principal stockholder in the Star Clothing Co. says his stock is damaged to the extent of $25,000. The clothing plant, which employes 600 convicts, will have to be closed at least a week.

Two convicts who were going to the library when the storm struck were badly bruised by falling timber. The yards were filled with debris and are still a mass of broken telephone and light wires. Timbers were twisted and broken into hundreds of fragments. A steel stairway leading up on the outside of the chapel building was twisted by the force of the wind.

Water was dripping into the upper tiers of cells in the wrecked buildings, but the occupants were able to keep dry.

"E" hall, the cell building wrecked, is a modern building and is equipped with all prison conveniences. The other cell buildings are not badly damaged, but the fire walls that projected above the roofs were blown away. Some of the heavy stones crashed to the roofs of the cell buildings and some tumbled to the earth at the base of the buildings. There was nobody in the two other buildings unroofed. The library containing the prison collection of books is badly damaged.

"It is impossible," Warden Andrae said, to estimate the damage at this time."

There are about 2,250 persons in the penitentiary. The men are housed in three large cell buildings, one constructed of heavy stone and the other two of brick. The women occupy another building at the entrance to the prison stockade. This is a new building, built in the Dockery administration and was not damaged.

Warden Andrae called up Governor Hadley as soon as he could after the windstorm and asked the governor to come out. The governor started, but a heavy downpour of rain, accompanied by wind, a sort of secondary storm, forced him to turn back.

The high wires of the governor's mansion were broken by the wind. The building was lighted by candles last night. The capitol building and grounds, which receive their current from the penitentiary plant, were in darkness last night.

$25,000 FOR FRIENDSHIP

Remembered a Young Man Whom She Refused to Wed.

Chicago, June 9.—Mrs. Fannie Surdane Steele, 65 years old, of New York, died suddenly of apoplexy at a Chicago hotel. Her will, filed later in the probate court, discloses a romance, for by its provisions a man half as old as she, whom she refused to marry because of the difference in their ages, is to get $25,000 of her estate of $525,000.

The man, Edgar R. Accetta, an attorney of New York, was at Mrs. Steele's bedside when she died. He was the last person she asked to see when the hotel physician told her that she was dying.

Shortly after the death of her husband, fifteen years ago, Mrs. Steele became engaged to marry Accetta. She then broke the engagement, telling Acetta he would ruin his life by marrying a woman of her years.

Acetta then sued her for breach of promise in the New York courts. The suit was settled out of court on an agreement that Acetta should receive an annual income and $25,000 at Mrs. Steele's death. The larger part of Mrs. Steele's estate is left to Elmer E. Earl, a cousin, West Troy, N. Y.

NEGRO PLEADS GUILTY

He Was Drunk When He Entered Home of Mrs. Redding.

Seattle, Wash., June 9.—When Mayor Hiram C. Gill learned yesterday of President Taft's refusal to remove the negro soldiers from Fort Lawton, he ordered sixty emergency policemen placed in the Fort Lawton district. The mayor also ordered the closing of negro resorts near the fort where negro soldiers have obtained liquor.

Private Nathaniel Bledser made a full confession to the police yesterday after he was turned over to the civil authorities. He said that he was drunk when he entered Mrs. Redding's house. Bledser said that no other soldier should share the blame. He begged to be permitted to plead guilty and be sentenced.

OLD BALL PLAYERS

PRESIDENT BAN JOHNSON HAS A PLAN FOR HELPING THE DOWN-AND-OUTERS.

SUGGESTION IS NOT A BAD ONE

A Benefit Game Each Year by Major League Clubs, the Money to Be Sent Out in Monthly Checks to the Beneficiaries.

Detroit, Mich., June 9.—President Frank Nevin, of the Detroit Americans, says that when Ban Johnson, president of the American league, was here last week he (Nevin) proposed an elaborate plan for aiding down and out ball players, which was approved by the American league president and steps have been taken to put it into operation. Nevin's proposal, he says, was inspired by the present difficulties of Adrian C. Anson, of Chicago. In brief, it is this:

That once each year each club in the American and National leagues designate some game in its schedule, the gross receipts of which are to be turned into a fund for the aid of ex-ball players and other followers of the game who are in straightened circumstances, the game to be advertised as a benefit, thus increasing the receipts.

The fund to be administered by the national commission. Each case to be investigated as to its merits. All cases to be attended to individually, instead of establishing a players' home, the tentative scheme being to send a monthly check to the beneficiary.

The players of the teams competing in the benefit games probably will be asked to contribute small sums, $3 to $5. President Johnson thought $50,000 a year could be raised by this means. He will bring it before the national commission.

NEGRO SCHOOL BURNED

Clinton Democrat Says, "Dispensation of Providence."

The Southwest Baptist college at Bolivar was burned several nights since, the blaze being of incendiary origin, says the Clinton Democrat of Wednesday.

This school was established largely by the generosity of Bolivar people. It was finally turned over to William Jewell college and the authorities of that college sold it to negroes to start a negro school. The Bolivar people sought to prevent this by legal means, and litigation is pending.

The fire is therefore a sort of a "dispensation of Providence."

GAS FOR DOGS AT PARSONS

Sentenced to Death if License Has Not Been Paid.

Parsons, Kas., June 9.—Hereafter dogs in Parsons that have been sentenced to death because their license has not been paid will be asphyxiated.

The usual method of killing these dogs has been to shoot them, but there has been complaint that the dogs were not killed outright always and would continue to howl for some time.

Now they will be placed in an air-tight box and a current of natural gas turned in on them until they are dead.

S. S. S. A REAL CURE FOR BLOOD DISEASE

S. S. S. is a real cure for Contagious Blood Poison because it is a real blood purifier. We all realize that this disease is a specific blood infection of the most powerful nature, the virus of which so thoroughly poisons the corpuscles of the circulation that its symptoms are manifested over almost the entire body. First comes a tiny sore or pimple, then the mouth and throat ulcerate, the glands in the groin swell, the hair begins to fall out, skin diseases break out on the body, sores and ulcers appear, and even the bones ache with rheumatic pains. It is unreasonable to believe that in a blood poison so powerful as this that only a blood purifier can have any permanent good effect. S. S. S. is the greatest of all blood purifiers; it goes into the circulation and by thoroughly cleansing the blood of every particle of the insidious virus makes a permanent and lasting cure of Contagious Blood Poison. It does not hide or cover up the disease in the system, but it entirely removes the last trace of its destructive germs. If you are suffering with this disease S. S. S. will cure you because it will cleanse your blood and enrich its health-promoting corpuscles. S. S. S. is made entirely of healing, cleansing roots, herbs and barks, and is a medicine so absolutely safe and certain in its results, that everyone may cure themselves at home, and be assured the cure will be permanent and lasting. WANT HOME FOR THE ELKS

The National Meeting of the Order to Be Asked to Build It.

Excelsior Springs, Mo., June 9.—When the national convention of the Elks meets in Detroit in a few weeks it will be asked to build the new national home for its members in Excelsior Springs.

Elks throughout the country have become much dscouraged in recent years because the order has not provided a national home centrally located and conducted in a manner to make it attractive to superannuated members and creditable to the builders.

The present national home in Indiana has never been successful. It has been the bugaboo of the order for years. A committee appointed a year ago will report in the Detroit convention favoring, it is believed, a new home in a middle western state.

Elks from several western cities have been staying at the New Elms this week. They are much interested in the proposed national home and are favorable to Excelsior Springs.

KNOCKED OUT BY STORM

The Railroads, Telegraph and Telephone Companies.

(From Thursday's Daily)

The downpour of rain yesterday and last night put all of the streams in this section out of their banks, and did much damage to the railways, telephone and telegraph companies.

Not a train reached Sedalia on time today, and many of them were several hours late, the St. Louis and Kansas City papers not reaching here until long after the dinner hour.

Both the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies had trouble with their wires, and the same was true of the Bell and Home Telephone companies.

Manager Shields R. Smith, of the Bell, stated this afternoon that his company had over 300 'phones affected by the storm, but most of them would be in working order before night.

Methodist Church Struck.

Lightning struck the old church building on East Third street Wednesday afternoon, making a hole in the building, but doing no other damage.

Fine Box of Strawberries.

James H. Thomas, of South Ingram avenue, has the thanks of the Democrat-Sentinel for a box of the finest strawberries seen in Sedalia this season. The largest berry in the box measured seven inches in circumference.

ALL UNNECESSARY "INCIDENTALS" TO BE TABOOED AT UNIVERSITY.

STUDENTS ARE FOR SIMPLICITY

If High Schools of the Land Would Pattern After Chicago Educational Institution All Would Be Better.

Chicago, June 9.—University of Chicago students will show their preference for simplicity tomorrow evening when they attend the annual interclass hop.

The dance committee has decided to taboo all unnecessary "incidentals." The inter-class hop, which will take the place of the annual junior promenade this year, will establish a new standard at the university, as the former "proms" have called for flowers, carriages and an elaborate supper at midnight.

This year the refreshments will be served from class booths in the gymnasium and the guests are required to use the street cars or walk.

The dance will be under the management of all four classes of the university and the grand march will be led by representatives of each class.

THE CHECK WAS CROOKED

Everett Curry Was Arrested Today by Officer Bower.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

Everett Curry, aged 24, a farm hand, was arrested by Police Officer J. H. Bower at 9:15 o'clock this morning, charged with forgery. The arrest was made at the instigation of Cashier W. H. Powell.

Curry, who claims he has a wife in California, has been employed by Mrs. Jane L. Fowler, four miles east of town. Wednesday he complained of toothache and asked permission to come to town. He did so, riding a horse owned by his employer.

He attempted to dispose of the animal to a Sedalia attorney for $50, saying he wanted the money to buy another horse. The exchange was refused.

Shortly after the bank opened this morning Curry entered and presented a check for payment. The piece of paper was made payable to Elcy Brown and was endorsed as such and bore the forged signature of Jane L. Fowler.

In one corner of the check showing the amount were the figures $55, while written across the check was the word "Eight." The word eight and the figures $55 did not conform and this aroused Mr. Powell's suspicion.

He fumbled with the check long enough to notify the police, and while the officer was arriving detained Curry in the bank. When Officer Bower arrived he placed Curry under arrest.

DROWNED BATHING

SHELLEY PATTERSON, OF SEDALIA, LOST LIFE IN COLORADO RIVER.

THE BODY HAS BEEN RECOVERED

Associated Press Dispatch to the Democrat-Sentinel Was First Information Received in the City.

(From Wednesday's Daily)

The Democrat-Sentinel today received the following Associated Press dispatch from Austin, Texas:

"John Shelley Patterson, of Sedalia, Missouri, was drowned in the Colorado river here last night while bathing.

"The body was recovered. Patterson was a sophomore student in the state university."

Shelley Patterson was the 23-year-old son of Conductor J. M. Patterson, of the Missouri Pacific, who has been at the company hospital in St. Louis for several months.

The sad news was imparted to Clyde Patterson, a brother, today, by a Democrat-Sentinel reporter, it being the first information the family had of Shelley's death.

This morning Clyde received a message from another brother, Guy, who sells shoes in Texas, saying he was going to Austin, and would wire him tonight.

The mysterious message had partially prepared Clyde for bad news of some kind, but he had no intimation of its exact nature until advised by the Democrat-Sentinel.

Miss Ethel Patterson, a girl of 15 years, left last Saturday for a visit with her brother Shelley at Austin, and as she had not been heard from since, the family feared Guy's message related to some misfortune that had befallen her.

The body of Shelley Patterson will be brought here for burial. He was a deservedly popular young man, and a legion of friends here and at other points in Missouri will learn of his death with deepest sorrow.

The services will be under the auspices of the Modern Woodmen of America.

The following will be pallbearers: W. D. O'Bannon, J. H. Lankenau, George Walker, Edward Zoellig Mc. Willet and John M. Woods.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

Holtcamp was visited this morning by Dr. J. W. Helton, who stated it will be at least a week before the patient can leave his bed. The injuries, as stated in yesterday's Democrat-Sentinel, consist of sprains and bruises.

Hogan was able to sit up for a short time this morning at his home, 101 West Tenth street. He was visited last evening by Dr. W. C. Overstreet, who states that the hurts are not necessarily serious.

SNAKE IN WINDOW

GAVE SAN ANTONIO MAN SCARE THAT HE WILL REMEMBER FOR A LONG TIME.

THE LIMB OF TREE GAVE ACCESS

That Same Afternoon Hardware Dealer There Sold 24 Sets of Window Screens, Acording to News Dispatch.

San Antonio, Texas, June 9.—Ed Guilbeau, of the county assessor's office, this city, is busy convincing his friends that a snake he saw in the window of his third-story bedroom was a member of the real and sure-enough serpent variety.

It all happened Monday morning, the aftermath of a day on which "liker" cannot be had in San Antonio for love or money, except you know just where to go. Of this knowledge Ed pleads innocent. But the snake was there, nevertheless.

The consciousness that there was something in the room that should not be there roused Ed from a fine morning slumber. Horrors! Disporting on the window sill was a snake. Ed and the snake had a second's interview. Then Ed made for a weapon and the snake for the limb of a tree that had given it access to the room.

SEDALIA IS BOOMING

Building Permits Aggregating $127,000 Issued.

(From Thursday's Daily)

Since January 1, 1910, City Engineer F. T. Leaming has issued permits for more than $127,000 worth of building and improvement of Sedalia property. In addition to this amount, about 20 per cent additional building and improvement was made for which no permit was secured, owing to the city engineer and assistant being at work in the city when the applicant called at the engineer's office.

The amount of improvements during the year up to date follow:

January and February, $24,500.
March $44,125
April, $33,375.
May, $8,300.
June, $16,756.

Among the big improvements of the year were these:

Erection of an elevator and storage plant for the Harter Milling company, on West Main street; cost, $10,000.

Remodeling of Hoffman building, Fifth street and Ohio avenue, $8,000.

Three two-story residences for Sylvan and Arthur Kahn and J. Waldman, each to cost $6,000.

(From Wednesday's Daily)

The members of Sedalia aerie No. 601, F. O. E., will hold a special meeting tonight to consider the proposition of either building or purchasing an Eagles' home in Sedalia.

C. H. Raiffeisen, Walter Morey and W. E. Staley, comprising the building committee of the aerie, will make a report on the proposition, after which the matter will be thoroughly discussed.

Four in Funeral Carriage Killed.

Haverstraw, N. Y., June 9.—Four people were killed and one seriously injured here today when a locomotive struck a coach returning from a funeral.

WRECKED A PRISON

MISSOURI CONVICTS PRAYED WHEN THEIR HOME WAS UNROOFED.

WAS ALMOST A PANIC FOR A TIME

Only the Iron Tops of Cells Shielded 800 Prisoners From Torrents of Rain—Buildings Damaged and in Darkness.

Jefferson City, June 9.—A twisting wind struck Jefferson City last night and wrecked five of the buildings at the state penitentiary. None was killed or dangerously injured.

In a freakish way the wind swept in from the river, unroofed "E" hall, one of the new cell buildings, in which there are 800 convicts and six or eight guards.

Further on within the walled inclosure it twisted the roofs and fire walls from two other large buildings, including "A" hall.

One of the buildings wrecked was used for a kitchen, dining hall, chapel and library. Another was a factory building, occupied by the Star Clothing Co.

The electric light wires and the penitentiary light plant were put out of commission for two or three hours. A large number of guards cleaned up the wreckage and stood guard all night to see that none of the prisoners escaped. Warden Henry Andrae announced that the convicts were quiet in the wrecked cell building and were sheltered from the heavy rain still falling by the steel and concrete roofs of their cells. Only one man, a convict, was injured and he only slightly.

The wind came about 7:30 o'clock. The convicts had just been brought in from supper and locked in their cells when the roar of the storm was heard. It swept down the river with the sound of rushing water. Accompanying the wind was a heavy downpour of rain, a veritable deluge, that converted the streets of the city into creeks and rivers. The convicts beat upon the walls of their cells and some of them prayed aloud and shrieked. The guards who walk the long halls did what they could to quiet them. It was several minutes

That of Shelley Patterson, Drowned at Austin, Texas.

(From Thursday's Daily)

The body of Shelley Patterson, a well known young Sedalian, and a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Patterson, who was drowned in the Colorado river at Austin, Texas, Tuesday night, is expected to arrive in Sedalia on the Katy Limited tomorrow noon.

The remains will be taken to the home of the dead man's parents, 305 West Fifth street, but funeral arrangements will not be made until tomorrow, although services will probably be conducted Saturday afternoon.

Clyde Patterson, a brother of the deceased, today received a telegram from Guy Patterson, another brother, who was summoned to Austin on account of the accident, which stated that Shelley was swimming with a crowd at the time and swam away from the party. He was seized with cramps and was drowned before his absence was noticed.

The news of young Patterson's death, given in Wednesday's Democrat-Sentinel, caused universal sorrow among all who were acquainted with the young man and who had known him since childhood days in this city.

GOODBYE, WIENER

BACK TO THE REALMS OF OBLIVION

Is Feared the Wiener Wurst Proposition Will Add to the Burden of Prohibition and So-Called Baileyism.

Austin, Tex., June 9.—Woe is Austin. No more in future will the salicious wiener wurst tickle the palate of its inhabitants. Together with free silver and the brontosaurus it has journeyed to the realms of oblivion.

And all this because Pure Food Commissioner J. S. Abbott has banished from the butcher's scrap barrel the one chemical that would keep its multitudinous contents from entering into final and odoriferous disintegration.

The butchers are nuanimous that the only representative now left them would never keep the treasure of the scrap barrel fresh enough even for the manufacture of wieners, and have promptly decided that hereafter the delicacy named after the capital of Austria shall, as far as Austin is concernd, only be a memory, albeit a doubtful one.

Denizens of the state's capital who today came for their wonted quota of wiener were told that the hot tamale would have to take its place. However, it is understood that Austin's citizenship will not stand for this invasion of their rights, and politicians all over the state now fear that the wiener wurst issue will add to the purden of prohibition and Baileyism they are sarrying.

FOR A NEW CHURCH

BAPTIST COUNCIL FAVORS ORGANIZATION AS PROPOSED AT JOPLIN, MO.

REV. F. Y. CAMPBELL WAS THERE

"Seceding" Members of First Church Repudiate Claycomb and May Proceed With Their Plans.

(From Thursday's Daily.)

The latest development in connection with the organization of the Calvary Baptist church by forty-two former members of the First Baptist church was the passage Tuesday of resolutions indorsing the efforts of the new congregation and condemning former Lieutenant Governor S. H. Claycomb, a "wet" advocate in the recent local option campaign, by a council of four Baptist ministers called together to consider the situation.

This council, composed of the Rev. W. O. Anderson, of Springfield, the Rev. F. Y. Campbell, of Sedalia, the Rev. Milford Riggs, of St. Louis, and the Rev. H. E. Tralls, of Carthage, met at the Yates hotel Tuesday.

It was called together, members of the Calvary congregation say, after the Rev. H. A. Smoot, of the First Baptist church, had written a number of letters criticising the members of the new congregation for their secession to prominent Baptists in all parts of the state.

In these communications, it is said, he attempted to prevent the new congregation here from obtaining the necessary sanction from the church authorities for the formation of the new church.

In order to settle the controversy it was decided to have a meting of the council here and to thoroughly discuss the situation.

This was done, both congregations being represented, and the resolution were unanimously adopted favoring the new church.

A WORK THAT IS GOOD.

Few people know what the Melita Day Nursery is doing. Even those who gave liberally toward the establishing of the institution in our midst are unacquainted with the work it is accomplishing. Comparatively few citizens have ever visited the nursery, and it is therefore not surprising that so little is known of its work.

At the regular monthly meeting of the association held in the rest room of the Flower-Barnett Dry Goods Co. on Friday afternoon, a full attendance of the association being present, a report of the house committee was heard. It shows that during the month of May 313 children were cared for; most of these in the day time. A few were guests of the nursery night and day.

While it is the object of the association to only care for children whose parents would be self supporting were it not for the care that they had to give to their children, yet it frequently happens that children are found whose conditions are so deplorable that their unspoken appeal cannot be ignored. Parents are sick, or possibly the child or children are sick. For instance a mother and three small children were found in most pitiable surroundings, the mother too sick to care for her offspring, deserted by the husband and father, and there was nothing for the association to do but look after these helpless ones. The mother is in the city hospital and the children are being cared for in the nursery. Properly these would have to be looked after by the Associated Board of Charities, but neither the city nor county is prepared to care for such small children, so the day nursery had to take them.

The children cared for during the last month represent ten different families. Many instances of very distressing nature develop.

One woman determined to care for her two children left the older one, four or five years old, to the indifferent care of neighbors, and her twenty-months-old child she tied in a high chair, providing for it as best she could while she went out to work. So long had this been going on that the youngest had never walked. When brought to the nursery the little fellow did not know the use of his legs. He has been a daily guest at the nursery for some six weeks and now with the aid of a baby walker he is beginning to use his little limbs.

It would require much space in this paper to tell the many interesting and frequently pathetic incidents that are brought to light every week as a result of the work being done by the nursery. Miss Fuess, the matron now in charge, is a most pleasing person, coming to the nursery from the Institutional (South Methodist) church, Kansas City. Her ability as a nurse and manager is surprising. She is attractive, a very fascinating and interesting talker, in love with her work and is always pleased to entertain visitors and explain the workings of the institution over which she so gracefully presides. Visit the nursery, you will be surprised and enlightened, too.

The expenditures for the month of May were: For groceries, $44.05; meat, $2.65; milk, $7.00; ice, $1.00; dry goods, $38.95; matron, $32.00; nurse, $14.50; cook, $12.50; shoes, $2.57; washing, $12.00; sundries, $11.46, a total of $178.63. The items of dry goods and groceries seem possibly a little excessive. Some staples are included in the two items which it is hoped will not have to be purchased again for some time.

INSTRUCTING ENGLAND.

Col. Roosevelt having spent fully a week, or possibly ten days, in Egypt is, of course, fully equipped to instruct the British government on how to run that dependency. And in his customary modest and unassuming manner, having seen a duty to perform, he did it.

In historic Guild hall, London, surrounded by the trappings and frippery of monarchy, but unawed by the presence of cabinet officers, parliamentary leaders and government agents, who have been wrestling with the Egyptian problem for many weary years, the on-the-spot American told them, free of charge, right off the bat, what to do, illuminating his discourse with passages from his own experiences in benevolently assimilating the unruly Philippines and others of "our possessions."

The colonel made it clear that he has no patience with inferior peoples who cherish absurd desires for self-government, and that it is the plain duty of all strong and powerful nations to big-stick all such into humble, Christlike submission to the God inspired will of the mighty.

If the colonel had his way, doubtless he would send a few hell-roaring Jake Smiths into Egypt and by a few judicious massacres of the natives inculcate among the survivors such a profound and proper respect for the majesty of British rule, British law and British justice that there would be nothing further heard of the Egyptian nationalist party.

We learn with astonishment that the English people and government do not seem to be so sincerely grateful for Mr. Roosevelt's generous and priceless advice as they should be. Instead of parliament tendering him a vote of thanks and the populace proclaiming him a second King Solomon, whose matchless mind has shown them in a moment the solution of problems which generations of British statesmen have sought in vain to solve, there actually seems to be more of resentment and ridicule in the attitude of the British press and the British people toward the Universal Regulator and his advice than there is of reverence and humble thankfulness. Ribald journalists treat him as a joke and jealous statesmen accuse him of butting into something that doesn't concern him. Which shows remarkable ignorance on their part of the fact that everything concerns our Teddy, from bobbies to bombshells, and that instructing nations in their rights, duties and responsibilities is but one of the many cheerful tasks daily performed by the self-constituted Director of the Universe.

NEGRO SCHOOL BURNED

Clinton Democrat Says, "Dispensation of Providence."

The Southwest Baptist college at Bolivar was burned several nights since, the blaze being of incendiary origin, says the Clinton Democrat of Wednesday.

This school was established largely by the generosity of Bolivar people. It was finally turned over to William Jewell college and the authorities of that college sold it to negroes to start a negro school. The Bolivar people sought to prevent this by legal means, and litigation is pending.

The fire is therefore a sort of a "dispensation of Providence."

QUITS THE PULPIT

RESIGNED PASTORATE TO WED AND WILL "ENTER" WALL STREET AT ONCE.

THE STORY OF NEW YORK PRIEST

Fell in Love With a 16-Year-Old Girl Who Resided at Trenton, N. J., and Finally Concluded to Quit the Church.

New York, June 8.—Asserting he intended to become a stock broker, Alphonse M. Consolazio, the former priest, who recently married 16-year-old Katherine Johann, of Trenton, N. J., said today that for four years he had tried to forget the girl, but finally he became convinced it was his duty to abandon the church and wed.

"When Bishop McFaul called me before him," said Consolazio, "he refused to discuss anything with me but Miss Johann.

"He said my name was being connected with hers and, when I found there had really grown up a great deal of talk, I made up my mind the truest thing to do was to quit the church and marry Miss Johann. I did so, but we did not elope, as has been said.

"My father, who is a noted engineer in Italy and a friend of the pope, has written me he will be glad to have us visit him.

"I have several letters from institutions of learning to take a position as teacher of classics, but Wall street appeals to me.

"I want to become active in this commercial center and I intend to serve a novitiate in a broker's office here after which I shall open an office for myself."

COURT IN CHARGE

SEDALIA LIGHT AND TRACTION COMPANY PLACED IN RECEIVERS' HANDS.

THE ACTION TOOK PLACE TODAY

W. H. Powell, of Sedalia, and E. F. Swinney, of Kansas City, Appointed by Judge Philips—Could Not Meet Interest.

FAGE ONE.

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

Kansas City, Mo., May 8.—In the United States district court here today, Judge J. F. Philips presiding, the Sedalia Light and Traction company was, on petition of the bondholders, most of whom are residents of Boston, placed in the hands of receivers, and W. H. Powell, cashier of the Citizens' National bank of Sedalia, and E. F. Swinney, president of the First National bank of Kansas City, were appointed joint receivers to take charge of the property and operate it for the benefit of the bondholders and other creditors.

Messrs. Powell and Swinney will take charge of the property immediately.

The above special to the Democrat-Sentinel was received in this city at noon today and came as a surprise to all concerned.

Mr. Powell was called to Kansas City yesterday afternoon and at that time was in ignorance of the purpose of the call.

It has been known for some time that the company was in financial difficulties and that Edward M. Deane & Co., of Grand Rapids, Mich., who are supposed to own a majority of the stock, and the receivers of E. S. Gay & Co., of Boston, who also controlled some of the stock, were not in perfect agreement.

Besides this, the tremendous bonded indebtedness of the company, reaching to about $710,000, was more of a burden than the earning capacity of the company could bear, and it was only a question of time when it would default in its interest.

This it did on June 1, and the bondholders, it would seem, took quick action and appealed to the federal court for protection.

What the policy of the receivers will be cannot be learned, as Mr. Powell will not return to Sedalia until this afternoon on Missouri Pacific train No. 8 at 4:30 o'clock.

The step taken will solve many of the difficulties under which the company has been laboring and will tend to clear the situation much to the betterment of the city, as the property will, if placed upon an actual valuation, be able to pay as an investment and at the same time meet the obligations of its franchise without hardship, something it has been unable to do under existing conditions.

IT WAS AS DARK AS NIGHT

Hailstones as Big as Hickory Nuts at Topeka, Kan.

Topeka, Kan., June 8.—For thirty minutes, beginning at 10 o'clock this morning, Topeka was enveloped in darkness. The barometer fell rapidly, and people were greatly alarmed. The darkness was followed by a hail storm, the stones being the size of hickory nuts. A downpour of rain succeeded this. The temperature was 59 degrees.

The city is filled with visitors to attend the aviation exhibition and the Jobbers' and Manufacturers' convention.

Mr. Powell's New Machine.

W. H. Powell's new $3,000 Speedwell automobile, a seven passenger car, dark red in color, was put into commission Monday and attracted much attention and favorable comment.

AGAINST THE DRYS

CONGRESSMAN BOUTELL OF ILLINOIS MAKES SPEECH OPPOSING PROHIBITION.

SAYS THE LAWS DON'T PROHIBIT

Also Asserts That There Is an Appalling Measure of Use of Patent Medicines, Tonics and Narcotic Drugs.

Washington, D. C., June 8.—Addressing the annual convention of the United States Brewers' association today, Representative Boutell of Illinois made an unqualified attack on prohibition.

Three lessons, he said, are to be learned from the several states which have prohibition laws in effect, and these lessons are: That prohibition does not prohibit; that when the sale of mild beverages are forbidden, surreptitious sales of strong spirits of an inferior quality are greatly increased; that there was an appalling increase in the prohibition states in the demand for patent medicine, tonics and narcotic drugs.

He declared that prohibitory laws, whether effective or ineffective, are regarded by the wisest statesmen and philanthropists out of harmony with the spirit of an ideal government of an enlightened and free people.

WIDOW MUST STAY IN JAIL

Sent to Ludlow for Failure to Obey Court Order.

New York, June 7.—Mrs. Fannie S. Miller, an aged widow, said to be the only woman confined in Ludlow street jail for many years, who has been a prisoner there since March 24, has failed in her attempt to get out.

Justice Greenbaum, in the supreme court, decided, in dismissing her writ of habeas corpus, that she was lawfully in jail.

Mrs. Miller in 1907 was adjudged guilty of contempt of court by Surrogate Thomas, who committed her to jail for failure to turn over to Geo. McCague $5,000, alleged to be due him on a promissory note, alleged to have been given him by her late husband, Thomas Willard Miller. Mrs. Miller could not be found for service of the order until March 24 last.

Counsel who opposed the release of Mrs. Miller said that Miller died in 1905 and left a large estate. He said he learned that Mrs. Miller had collected large sums of money due the estate, including $20,000 insurance on the life of her husband.

He added that Miller had been in prison and that upon his release McCague loaned him $5,000 to help him get a new start in life.

BIG FRAUD SCHEME

BY IT THE ILLINOIS CENTRAL ALLEGES IT HAS LOST $2,000,000.

FOUR FORMER OFFICALS ARE SUED

Actions of Accounting Are Brought Against Concerns Given Repair Work—Month's Inquiry Is Ended.

Chicago, Ill., June 7.—Charging it has been defrauded out of about $2,000,000 on repair work in a period of four years, the Illinois Central Railroad company filed suit for an accounting against four of its former officials in the circuit court here Monday. The railroad company's bill, which alleges conspiracy to defraud, names the following men:

Orland S. Keith, former superintendent of transportation.

Joseph E. Buker, former assistant superintendent of the car machinery.

William Renshaw, former superintendent of machinery.

John M. Taylor, former general storekeeper.

In connection with these charges made against its former officials the Illinois Central road declares in its bill that these concerns profited in alleged overcharges on car repair work in the following amounts:

The Blue Island Equipment company, $406,000.

The American Car and Equipment company, $100,000.

Aosterman Manufacturing company, $750,000.

The Memphis Car company, $300,000.

The International Car company, no amount named.

In addition to the suit filed against the four former officials, the railroad also filed suits for an accounting against the West Pullman Car company and against the American Car and Equipment company. These suits were also filed in the circuit court.

The action follows months of investigation by the railroad company and numerous rumors of an alleged graft "ring" in the Illinois Central railroad. Heretofore, high officials of the road have stoutly denied that there existed any trouble of this alleger character.

The bill against the four former department heads alleges that the men entered into a conspiracy in June, 1906, and from that date until April, 1910, the railroad company was defrauded out of nearly $2,000,000.

The defendants are alleged to have represented to the corporation that the company's repair work could be done more cheaply by independent concerns than at the railroad's own shops.

When the contracts were given to certain independent concerns the bill charges, the railroad company began paying a long series of overcharges, from which certain superintendents are declared to have obtained thousands of dollars.

that $50,000 Y. M. C. A. building in Sedalia.

Starting with the generous donation of $10,000 to the Y. M. C. A. by Mrs. S. E. Cotton as an impetus, the determination of the campaign workers was to secure subscriptions to an equal amount before the close of the first day. Despite a continuous downpour of rain throughout the entire day and night, making the canvas difficult, and creating a disposition that would seem to be discouraging, to say the least, the workers entered the fray with fire in their eyes and ginger in the spirit of fighting against these odds, and at 9 o'clock last night the amount of subscriptions taken equaled the subscription of Mrs. Cotton, making a grand total of $20,000 subscribed before the close of the first day. When the siren whistle of the Monarch laundry blew those thirty-four blasts shortly after 1 o'clock yesterday, announcing the amount subscribed up to that time as $17,000, and then less than an hour later two more long blasts were heard, indicating that to this amount another thousand had been added, there were a few who did not understand the meaning of this continued whistling and thought some great calamity had occurred. It is safe to say that not one person who understood that each blast meant the addition of $500 to the fund, was not proud of the fact that Sedalia has regained her old-time generosity and will hasten the reaching of the goal for a Y. M. C. A. building, whether that person was a contributor or not.

With the ball already nearly in the center of the field, the workers in this movement are trying to kick the goal long before the final day, June 18th. With only $27,371 to raise, the leaders in the campaign see no reason for stretching the work out longer than necessary. The clock is set for midnight of June 18th, but no one favors making a wire finish. That sort of thing is all right when there is no way to win, but Sedalia doesn't have to give that sort of an exhibition.

"We have already reached that stage of the campaign where it is just as easy to win in six days as in ten," W. D. Fellows, campaign secretary said today. "The money is here, the people of Sedalia are grasping this opportunity, and it is only necessary to go out and get the subscriptions. There is no use dragging along taking small amounts daily, and I would like to see the fund closed with Sedalia's old-time fire and spirit before the time limit. John Montgomery, Jr., and myself, who are old-time Y. M. C. A. men in Sedalia, are practicing a duet to sing when the $50,000 is reached, and we are in a hurry to start that song."

Hundreds of people looked at the dial of the clock today and yesterday. Some walked several blocks to know the result—the hands will change only once each day—shortly after 1 p. m.—just after the close of the noonday luncheon, when reports are received from all committees and teams.

The ambition of each leader and worker will be to lead in the amount of subscriptions taken, and to this end all intending subscribers are requested to be ready to sign for the proposed amount when one or more of the workers call upon you. They are men whose time is valuable, and are sacrificing their own affairs to work in this campaign for the uplifting of young men and boys of the present Sedalia, and to those who will be future Sedalians. Get into the band of boosters, help push along the wonderful spirit of progress and generosity which this campaign has started.

A Sale Extraordinary & Unprecedented in the History of Our Mercantile Career

Today marks the beginning of the biggest price cutting event. The reason is obvious. Up to the present time we have had the most unfavorable weather and other causes effecting business conditions and as a consequence our stocks are entirely too large. We are going to reduce them now instead of waiting until the latter part of July—even tho we know, by doing so, we see our season's profits go glimmering—desperate diseases require desperate remedies, hence we do not hesitate to put the knife in deep. How earnest we are in this resolve you will see from the prices quoted below. This sale is so unusual that we can hardly refrain from using sensational language, but we have confined ourselves to this simple statement of pure facts, appealing to your intelligence rather than to your being of sensationalism.

GOOD ROADS' TALK

THIS IS THE PLATFORM OF CANDIDATE IN LAFAYETTE COUNTY, MISSOURI.

WANTS TO BE PRESIDING JUDGE

Judge John Henry Green, of Odessa, Says That Work Should Be Done on the Highways Wherever It Is Needed.

Higginsville, Mo., June 9.— The "working" of country roads is the platform upon which Judge John Henry Green, of Odessa, has declared his intention of running for presiding judge of the county court of Lafayette county. In announcing his candidacy Judge Green said:

"Farmers are allowed to work out their poll taxes when they care to. Naturally they put it off until the last minute. The result is that much road work is done in the late fall, when, in most cases, it does little good and sometimes harm.

"Every county could have fairly good roads if great care were taken in the selection of road overseers, and the overseers were instructed to see to it that all poll tax work should be done within certain specified months, that arrangements were made with reliable farmers to drag the roads after every rain."

CUT IS GIVING TROUBLE

This Is the Report That Comes From the Panama Canal.

San Antonio, Tex., June 7.—That all is not well with the Panama canal, that the Culebra cut is giving trouble and that the government may have to face a labor crisis before long, is the news brought here by a letter addressed to B. D. Dittmer, of this city.

The writer of the epistle is employed in the office of the treasurer of the commission, but to give his name might have serious consequences. According to the informant the sides of the Culebra cut are giving way to the tremendous pressure exerted upon them and several large slides have already occurred. One of them sent two million cubic yards of rock and earth to the bottom of the cut.

Moreover, the Gambos river has broken through its dam above the cut and is liable to cause great damage at any moment. Locomotive drivers and mechanics in general are beginning to grow dissatisfied and are looking for greater inducements to remain at their posts.

THROWS ICE COLD WATER

Strange Geyser in Yellowstone Contradicts Scientific Theory.

Helena, Mont., June 4.—The most remarkable and puzzling of all the natural phenomena in the Yellowstone National park has recently been discovered by Winter Keeper Bunsen, of Norris Station, says a Livingstone special.

It is a geyser called the Valentine, which plays regularly every twenty-four hours and throws a stream 150 feet high, but the water is ice cold instead of boiling hot. The discovery is amply substantiated.

The usually accepted theory of geyser activity seems to have received a rather severe jolt by the discovery of this latest freak.

It has been one accepted hypothesis of the geyser formation that subterranean waters coming in contact with lime and certain chemicals generates heat and pressure steam, which seeking vent, causes the eruption. This theory, however, fails utterly to account for the Valentine's peculiar action.

WOMANPROMOTED

WORKS FOR THE 'FRISCO RAILWAY

Been at Fort Scott, Kansas, for Several Years, but Has Now Been Transferred to St. Louis Headquarters.

Fort Scott, Kan., June 9.— Miss Clara Kascheur, who for some time has been employed in the 'Frisco offices here as timekeeper of this division, has learned of a promotion which is to be made by the company, and she is vitally interested, inasmuch as she is to be the beneficiary.

She has been promoted to the position of head timekeeper of the 'Frisco road, and her official title is to be traveling timekeeper of the 'Frisco route. She will report at St Louis today and begin her duties. The promotion is quite an honor and much the more so because she is a woman—a business woman in every sense of the word, who has saved the 'Frisco money every day that she has worked.

She began work in the offices here several years ago and went through a gradual promotion until she had reached the office of head timekeeper at this place. She has been on duty for some time in that position and had complete control of the time checks of the men under the supervision of this division.

She worked well and did her work in a thoroughly efficient manner. She is a money saver for the system. That is why she got the present job. It is estimated by those about the office that she has saved the system between $15.000 and $20,000 every year that she has been employed as timekeeper at that office.

The position is a large one. It is the goal for which every person in the timekeeping department strives, and is gotten through much competition. There are at least two or more persons employed in the timekeeping department on every division, and on the 'Frisco there are at least six divisions, over all of which she will have direct charge.

Here she has been under the supervision of Superintendent T. B. Coppage, but in the new position she recognizes no authority except that of the vice president and general manager and general officers above. For the work she is to receive over $100 per month and expenses. She is to report to Vice President W. C. Nixon at his offices today and begin work. It will be her duty to inspect the work of the employes under her

TO STOP SPEEDING

MAYOR J. W. MELLOR IS TO STOP "RED DEVILS" RACING IN SEDALIA.

ORDER IS ISSUED TO THE POLICE

Also Going After People Who Throw Broken Glass and Tacks in the Streets to Ruin Tires of Automobiles.

(From Wednesday's Daily)

Mayor J. W. Mellor has inaugurated a crusade to stop fast automobile riding in the city limits, and effective at once the city police will arrest any automobile driver, regardless of who it is, if caught exceeding the speed limit in the corporate limits of Sedalia.

The same official has also instructed the police to arrest and incarcerate in jail at once any person who throws glass or tacks in the public streets with a view of destroying automobile tires.

Numerous complaints have been filed with the mayor that persons, especially boys in East Sedalia, sprinkle tacks on the paved streets and cover the same with pieces of paper. When the automobiles pass over the paper the result is that the tires are punctured and invariably cause the owner no little inconvenience and expense.

Mayor Mellor requests the Democrat-Sentinel to state that the severest penalty possible will be inflicted on both automobile speeders and those caught damaging automobile tires.

WERE GORED BY A BULL

New York Farmer and Son Saved by a Shepherd Dog.

Utica, N. Y., June 4.—Charles Jewett, an Oriskany Falls farmer, and his son, Earl, are in a serious condition following an encounter with a maddened bull.

The elder Jewett was gored by the animal and sustained internal injuries which it is feared may result fatally. His son had several ribs broken and was otherwise mutilated. The bull first attacked the younger Jewett, whose cries brought his father on the scene. The latter attempted to beat the animal off with clubs, when the bull charged upon him, tossed him in the air, and when he struck the ground trampled upon him.

A shepherd dog came upon the scene and tackled the legs of the animal and by its continued biting took the attention of the bull from its victims so that they were able to escape certain death.

People's Pulpit---

Sermon by CHARLES T RUSSELL, Pastor Brooklyn Tabernacle,

Pastor Russell Home Again

Text:—"Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God. Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her that her appointed time is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned; for she hath received of the Lord's hand double for all her sins."—Isaiah 40:1, 2.

Correspondence Democrat-Sentinel.

Brooklyn, New York, June 5.—Pastor Russell returned from his European trip just in time to keep his appointment to speak in Brooklyn's largest auditorium, the Academy of Music. His topic was "Jerusalem," from the text, "Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God. Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her that her appointed time is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned; for she hath received of the Lord's hand double for all her sins" (siah xl, 1, 2). As had been anticipated, the crowds were too great for accommodation at the Tabernacle. The spacious Academy of Music was crowded, with a large number of ministers and other men on the platfrom. After announcing his text the speaker said:

Christendom, with united voice, admits that all of the Divine Revelation came to and through the Hebrew people. Listen to the argument of the Apostle Paul, "What advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision? Much every way; chiefly, because that unto them were committed the oracles of God"—the Divine message respecting the Divine purposes, present and to come. The Apostle again informs us that the entire Gospel message was briefly comprehended in the Creator's promise to Abraham, "In thy Seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed" (Galatians iii, 8).

"To the Jew First."

It was the most natural thing imaginable for the Jewish nation to suppose that the giving to them of the Law at Mount Sinai, through the mediatorship of Moses, was the fulfillment of the promise to Abraham. Nevertheless they were mistaken.

Israel's Mediator, and the sacrificing priests, and the sacrifices they offered, and their Tabernacle, with its Holy and Most Holy, and the Temple, and all the features of the Law Covenant were types or foreshadows of the "better sacrifices," higher Priesthood, better Mediator, glorious blessings of eternal forgiveness and reconciliation yet to be accomplished. Nevertheless the period of Israel's types was not wasted. Not only were the types there given, but at the same time a special class of agents were selected: Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the Prophets and worthy ones of that age, holy, consecrated to God, and accepted as agents qualified for the Kingdom conditions. Of these the Scriptures declare, "They fell asleep." They are still asleep in the dust of the earth, awaiting the glorious resurrection morning, and a grand share then with Messiah in the work then to be accomplished. In their lifetime, they were styled the Fathers, because Messiah was foretold to be of the posterity of Abraham, and also "David's Son."

But other Scriptures, without contradicting these statements, show us distinctly that "David's Son" and "Abraham's Seed" is to be Lord and Father of both David and Abraham. Thus we read, "Instead of thy fathers shall be thy children, whom thou mayest make princes in all the earth" (Psalm xlv, 16). David's son, Messiah, will be David's father, or life-giver, when he will raise David from the dead. Similarly he will be the father of all of those ancient worthies; and as David's Lord, and "Lord of lords," it will be his pleasure to appoint to Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and all of the Ancient Worthies, and Prophets, and faithful ones a glorious share with himself in the great Messianic Kingdom, which he is about to set up for the ruling and blessing of Israel and all the nations of the earth. Will not this be a grand honor to Abraham and his Seed! Could we expect that the Almighty would honor and use in such a high position any except the faithful? Surely not. When Messiah shall make these Ancient Worthies "Princes in all the earth," as representatives of his invisible Kingdom, will not this mean honor and dignity to the Jews first?

"Comfort Ye My People."

Our text is one of three declarations in the Old Testament, which assure us that there is a "double" connected with Israel's history. That is to say, Jewish history naturally divides itself into two exactly equal parts; the first of which was a time of favor, intermingled with disciples, but favor nevertheless. The second of these parts has been one of disfavor and exclusion from Divine fellowship. As foretold by the Prophet, Israel for many centuries has been without prophet, or priest, and without ephod and without communion with God; whereas, at one time they were God's favored people. They now, according to their own admission, are so thoroughly rejected that they have no communication whatever, no light to shine upon their pathway. The prophet's words have been fulfilled, "Let their table become a snare before them; and that which should have been for their welfare, let it become a trap. Let their eyes be darkened, that they see not" (Psalm lxix, 22, 23). They have stumbled; they are blinded; but thank God! their blindness is not to be perpetual. The period of their blindness is the second part of the "double;" with the fulfillment of that "double" their blindness will begin to vanish, and "All the blind eyes shall be opened." Of that time the Lord declares that "He who scattered Israel will gather them."

We are impressed, not by fancy, but by the Word of God, that Israel's "double" is now fulfilled, that Israel's blessing has alreary begun, that the opening of Israel's eyes is now in porgress. For this reason we have chosen for our text, "Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God. Cry unto Jerusalem and say unto her that her appointed time is accomplished, for she hath received at the Lord's hand double [the two parts of her cnastisement] for all her sins." Because the "double" is completed, we may speak the words of comfort.

Thirty-four years ago we called attention to these facts, but few had ears to hear. When eighteen years ago we visited Jerusalem, having in mind chiefly the fact that the time for the regathering of Israel was nigh at hand, and that the set time to favor Zion had come, we found no hearing ears amongst the Jewish people; and Zionism had not then been dreamed of. Our communications with the representatives of the Baron Hirsch Imigration Fund, and also with the executors of the Sir Moses Montefiore Jewish Relief Fund met with scant recognition. Nevertheless, we felt sure that Israel's "double" had been fulfilled, and that her morning of joy would soon break.

Meantime how much has happened during those eighteen years! Zionism has risen and engendered the hope of the "chosen people" in every land, and turned their eyes toward the land of promise; not that all are thinking of returning thither, but that every Jew who retains faith in the God of his fathers, and in the Abrahamic promise, is now looking and hoping for the time of blessing, long foretold. They know not about their "double;" they have not been studying the Holy Scriptures, but the teachings of their ancients, as presented by the Talmud. They have been making a very similar mistake to that of Christian people, who have been studying the creeds of the "dark ages" instead of the Word of God.

The Three "Doubles."

Glance with me at three different statements by the Lord through the prophets of Israel respecting Israel's "double" of experience; the first, an experience of God's favor; the second, an experience of equal length without divine favor. Notice first Jeremiah's prophecy (Jeremiah xvi, 18). After telling of Israel's disfavor, and then of their regathering, the Lord declares, "And first I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double"—some of the recompense with favor, and some without favor. Jeremiah's prophecy looks down to be "double" from his own day, which was more than six hundred years before the second part of their "double" began.

Turn now to Zechariah's prophecy, and note that prophetically he takes his standpoint at the very time when the second part of the "double" began. His words are, "Even today do I declare that I will render double unto thee (Zecharaah ix, 12).

Come next to our text, and note that the Prophet Isaiah stands with us, and views the matter from the standpoint that the "double" of experience has been fulfilled: "Speak comfortably unto Jerusalem, say unto her that her appointed time is accomplished, because she hath received at the Lord's hand double [two equal parts] for her sins." It is our understanding that this "double" reached flulfillment in the year 1878 A. D., and since that date we have been declaring to the best of our ability, as the Lord granted opportunity, these comforting words to Israel, assuring God's chosen people that their period of disfavor has ended, and that they are gradually returning to prosperity; that Divine favor began with them in 1878. Yea, more than this, our sermons which to some extent reflect this feature of the Divine program relating to Israel's restoration to Divine favor, are being read to a considerable extent by Hebrews as well as by Christians; their eyes are gradually opening, as the Scriptures foretell they shall do.

But how may we know when the turning point of Israel's "double" took place? How may we know that the "double" was completed in 1878? We reply that the answer to the question necessitates an ackrowledgement of Jesus as the Messiah. Israel's rejection of him as their King, marks the turning point of God's favor, as the prophecy of Zechariah, just quoted, distinctly shows. Neither Christians nor Jews have appreciated the full import of the incident mentioned in the Gospel; that five days before his crusifixion, Jesus rode upon an ass, after the manner of Jewish kings, into the city of Jerusalem, a multitude surrounding him, and going before him, shouting, "Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is he that cometh in the name of Jehovah!" The Prophet Zechariah called attention to this incident centuries before it occurred, and then gives the Lord's words, "Even today do I declare, I will render double unto thee."

Israel's history as a nation began with the death of Jacob, when he gave his blessing to the twelve tribes. The period from that time to the death of Jesus, according to the Scriptures, was 1845 years; and a like period of disfavor, measuring from the day of Jesus' rejection marks the year 1878, as the end of Israel's disfavor—the time when the message of comfort should go forth. However, Divine favor was only gradually taken form Israel, and altogether a period of thirty- six years intervened between the death of Jesus and the utter destruction of Jerusalem. Similarly we should expect that the return of favor would be gradual, a like period of thirty-six years; and this would bring us to the year 1914, as the time when God's favor for his people will be publicly and openly manifested.

"The Seed of Abraham."

The question now arises, What has God accomplished during the after half of Israel's "double?" Did He pass by His chosen people to directly bless the Gentiles, or how shall we understand Divine Providence with respect to this matter?

We answer that Almighty God had one feature of His plan which He did not make known directly or explicitly to Abraham or any other prophet. He kept that feature of His purpose a secret. It is this: Messiah could not be a man and yet accomplish the great things which Jehovah intended, as stated in His Word. The law called for an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth and a man's life for a man's life. In this God set forth His principle governing His course of dealing with men. As by man (Adam) came the sentence of death, and through heredity upon all of his offspring, even so the Divine Law purposed that there must be a sacrifice of one human life to offset the one human life condemned to death. The one who would thus meet the demands of justice on behalf of the race would have the right to give eternal life and human perfection to every member of Adam's race willing to accept it on the terms of the Divine law. It was for this reason that Christ should die, "the just for the unjust."

As a reward for His obedience unto the Father even unto death, Christ was raised from the dead unto Divine nature. In this exalted position He is capable of being a Mediator and of doing a work for Israel and the world much higher and broader than Moses could effect. Moses, the typical mediator, made atonement for a year with the blood of beasts; but Messiah with His own blood makes perpetual atonement for the sins of the people. This is the great Messiah (Jesus) Who suffered the death of the cross, for the Jews and for the Gentiles, "for all the people." This is the glorified Messiah, Who as the spiritual seed of Abraham is about to bless Israel's ancient worthies, and to "make them princes in all the earth;" ministers in His kingdom for the ruling blessing and instruction of whosoever will, out of the present sin and death conditions to life eternal to full human perfection, with the earth as Paradise restored.

Members of Messiah.

But someone may say, Where do christians come in connection with this Divine arrangement? And if God's dealings with the world are to be through Israel and not with the church, why has there been so long a delay? Why did not the Messiah at once set up His kingdom and bring forth the ancient worthies from the tomb to be earthly representatives? Oh, here is another part of the mystery of God! Isaac, Abraham's son, was typical of Messiah, the spiritual seed, but before Isaac began the work of dispensing the blessings to his brethren and his children he first took a bride, and this act also was allegorical or typical. In the ante type Messiah, the glorified Jesus, partook of the Divine nature, according to the Father's invitation, and He is to take a bride who is to be His joint heir on the spirit plane, to share with Him the glory, honor and service of the Messianic kingdom. The period of Israel's disfavor, as a nation, has been the time in which a special class has been called of the Father and begotten of the Holy Spirit to joint heirship with Christ as His bride.

But did God pass by the natural seed of Israel to give these spiritual privileges to the Gentiles—to gather rom the Gentiles a people figuratively to constitute the bride of Messiah? Nay. The Scriptures assure us that this spiritual privilege went first to the Jews; they show us that during the three and a half years of Jesus ministry, and during the thirty-six years following it the Gospel message was given almost exclusively to the Jews, and gathered from that people as many as were found to be "Israelites indeed without guile," as many as were not only of the circumcision of the flesh, but also who were of the circumcision of the heart. God did not continue to deal with His chosen people, but after having gathered from them as many as were worthy of the spiritual blessing and exaltation—only then was the message sent to the Gentiles to gather from the Gentiles a number sufficient to complete the foreordained and predestined number who will constitute the bride.

So, then, my brethren, in proving from the Scriptures that Israel's "double" is about completed; that Israel's blindness is about to be taken away, and that Israel's exaltation as the earthly representative of Messiah's kingdom is near at hand, we are proving to ourselves another thing, namely, that the full number called from amongst the Gentiles to participate with Christ on the spirit plane, as members of His bride class, will soon be completed (Romans ii, 25-32.)

DO IT NOW

Sedalia People Should Not Wait Until It Is Too Late.

The appalling death rate from kidney disease is due in most cases to the fact that the little kidney troubles are usually neglected until they become serious. The slight symptoms give place to chronic disorders and the sufferer goes gradually into the grasp of diabetes, dropsy, Bright's disease, gravel or some other serious form of kidney complaint.

If you suffer from backache, headaches, dizzy spells; if the kidney secretions are irregular of passage and unnatural in appearance, do not delay. Help the kidneys at once.

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for kidney disorders—they cure where others fail. Over one hundred thousand people have recommended them. Here's a case at home:

Mrs. Ellen McNeil, 803 E. Broadway, Sedalia, Mo., says: "I suffered a great deal from kidney and bladder trouble and had pains in the small of my back and hips. My rest was often disturbed and I arose in the morning feeling lame and sore. I generally felt tired and languid and I sometimes noticed a swelling beneath my eyes. I tried several remedies, but was not helped until a neighbor told me about Doan's Kidney Pills. I procured a box at Bard's Drug Store and the results of their use were better than I had expected. In a short time I was in good health. I gladly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."

NEGRO PLEADS GUILTY

He Was Drunk When He Entered Home of Mrs. Redding.

Seattle, Wash., June 9.—When Mayor Hiram C. Gill learned yesterday of President Taft's refusal to remove the negro soldiers from Fort Lawton, he ordered sixty emergency policemen placed in the Fort Lawton district. The mayor also ordered the closing of negro resorts near the fort where negro soldiers have obtained liquor.

Private Nathaniel Bledser made a full confession to the police yesterday after he was turned over to the civil authorities. He said that he was drunk when he entered Mrs Redding's house. Bledser said that no other soldier should share the blame. He begged to be permitted to plead guilty and be sentenced.

KILLED, 1; HURT, 2

SCAFFOLD AT THE HOME OF MR. J. A. LAMY BROKE AT 8:55 THIS MORNING.

G. W. STANDLEY LOST HIS LIFE

J. W. Holtcamp and William Hogan Injured, but Will Recover—An Inquest Is Being Held This Afternoon.

(From Wednesday's Daily)

One man was killed instantly, another was seriously injured and a third man was painfully hurt at 8:55 o'clock this morning, when a scaffold at the home of J. A. Lamy, 500 South Grand avenue, collapsed, precipitating the three men to a cement sidewalk twenty feet below.

Killed:

G. W. Standley, aged 45, married; neck broken.

Injured:

J. W. Holtcamp, married, 237 South Park avenue; right arm, shoulder and back severely strained and bruised.

William Hogan, aged 21, son of A. J. Hogan, 1101 West Tenth street; shoulder and back strained.

Holtcamp was the foreman of a gang of carpenters at work on J. A. Lamy's home, making several thousand dollars' worth of improvements.

He, Standley and Hogan were standing on a scaffold, erected twenty feet in the air, engaged in placing shingles on the front roof. The board on which they were standing was a 2x8 piece of timber, supported at either end by a 1x3 piece of pine, with an eight-foot span between.

The three men had just stepped onto the 2x8 board when the cross-piece supporting it at the west side broke, throwing the three men to a three-foot cement sidewalk below.

Standley fell on his back and shoulders. His neck was broken. He moved his head one inch, gave one moan and breathed no more.

Holtcamp fell on his back, but was able to get up. Hogan alighted on his face. He, too, was able to arise.

The crash of the falling timber was heard for two blocks, and in a moment a crowd of residents of the locality had assembled. Immediately every available physician was summoned, Drs. W. C. Overstreet, Charles McNeil, C. B. Trader and K. R. Barnum responding at once.

An examination of Standley showed that death was instantaneous. Coroner Dr. F. R. Morley was summoned and after viewing the body decided to hold an inquest at McLaughlin Bros.' undertaking rooms at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Temporary treatment was given to Holtcamp and Hogan, after which they were removed to their homes.

Holtcamp was later attended by Dr. James W. Helton, who, on making an examination, found that his right arm, shoulder and back had been severely strained and bruised.

Hogan was examined at his home, and it was found that his shoulder and back had been painfully strained, but not seriously. Both he and Holtcamp are bedfast.

The accident was a distressing one, and caused a gloom to fall over the other workmen engaged at the Lamy home. When the crash came painters at work on the interior of the house ran to the assistance of the three men, but the sight was so ghastly they turned away.

Standley resided with his wife and children in Northeast Sedalia.

The following comprise the coroner's jury : J. W. Mallery, W. H. Highleyman, M. H. Morris, I. N. Sprecher, Ellis R. Smith and F. F. Hatton.

At 3 o'clock the jury returned a verdict that Standley met his death by accident in a fall from a scaffold.

after the storm passed before quiet was restored.

Fire broke out in the Sullivan saddle tree factory and was burning fiercely before it was discovered. This was extinguished without serious damage to the building or to Sullivan's stock. It was necessary to bring out a large force of convicts under heavy guard to fight the flames.

One of the walls of the building occupied by the Star Clothing Co. is leaning out about two feet. James Harchin, principal stockholder in the Star Clothing Co., says his stock is damaged to the extent of $25,000. The clothing plant, which employes 600 convicts, will have to be closed at least a week.

Two convicts who were going to the library when the storm struck were badly bruised by falling timber. The yards were filled with debris and are still a mass of broken telephone and light wires. Timbers were twisted and broken into hundreds of fragments. A steel stairway leading up on the outside of the chapel building was twisted by the force of the wind.

Water was dripping into the upper tiers of cells in the wrecked buildings, but the occupants were able to keep dry.

"E" hall, the cell building wrecked, is a modern building and is equipped with all prison conveniences. The other cell buildings are not badly damaged, but the fire walls that projected above the roofs were blown away. Some of the heavy stones crashed to the roofs of the cell buildings and some tumbled to the earth at the base of the buildings. There was nobody in the two other buildings unroofed. The library containing the prison collection of books is badly damaged.

"It is impossible," Warden Andrae said, to estimate the damage at this time."

There are about 2,250 persons in the penitentiary. The men are housed in three large cell buildings, one constructed of heavy stone and the other two of brick. The women occupy another building at the entrance to the prison stockade. This is a new building, built in the Dockery administration and was not damaged.

Warden Andrae called up Governor Hadley as soon as he could after the windstorm and asked the governor to come out. The governor started, but a heavy downpour of rain, accompanied by wind, a sort of secondary storm, forced him to turn back.

The high wires of the governor's mansion were broken by the wind. The building was lighted by candles last night. The capitol building and grounds, which receive their current from the penitentiary plant, were in darkness last night.

Goose bottom, or that section of Jefferson City in the low grounds, is flooded and the inhabitants have left their homes.

The damage to property in Jefferson City is severe.

THE LATE BILL NYE

MAN WHO MADE LARAMIE, WYOMING, BOOMERANG KNOWN THE WORLD OVER.

HIS GRAVE REMAINS UNMARKED

North Carolina Press Association Takes Preliminary Steps With a View of Erecting a Monument to His Memory.

Wrightsville Beach, N. C., June 8.—One of the features of the opening session of the annual convention of the North Carolina Press association, which convened at the Hotel Tarrymoore this morning, was the launching of a movement to erect a substantial memorial to the late "Bill" Nye the humorist, whose death occurred at his home in this state in 1896, and whose unmarked grave Henderson county is the Mecca for many tourists. The movement, which was introduced in the course of an essay on journalistic problems by R. W. Vincent, of the Charlotte Observer, was eloquently seconded by James H. Caine, of the Asheville Citizen, in an enthusiastic speech.

In proposing the memorial project Mr. Vincent said, in part:

"Up yonder in the mountain fastnesses of Henderson, in a lone grave unmarked save by a rough stone boulder, uninscribed, which, by his wish is the only monument he desired, lies all that is mortal of an adopted son, whose memory this state has neglected to honor—one we are proud to claim as of our craft—the lamented 'Bill' Nye.

"It was his misfortune not to have been born in North Carolina—Maine claims that honor—but the best years of his life were spent at beautiful Buck Shoals and the best work of his career was done there. It was in the Carolina foothills that he gave up the unequal struggle, and it is there that he is buried.

"We can not more ornately mark his last resting place if we respect his wishes, but we can erect in Hendersonville, or Asheville, or, if you will, in the shadow of the capitol at Raleigh, a suitable and substantial memorial to show to the world that we know our duty and have performed it.

"Who among us has not delighted his soul with the Boomerang stories or dropped a tear over the pathos of 'The Pass that Came Too Late?' The good that he did by making the world brighter by the music of his mirth can not be measured in words, and he left us things upon which to reflect and thoughts upon which to build for ourselves a future, that, let us hope, may be rewarded by those who live after us, better than we have rewarded those who have gone before."

In seconding the movement to erect a memorial to Bill Nye, James H. Caine, of the Asheville Citizen, said:

"In endorsing the Nye monument movement I believe I voice the sentiment not only of the press fraternity of Western North Carolina, but of the great majority of the citizenship of that section, who hold in loving remembrance the name of the man whose body now rests in the shadows of their mountains.

"While the present movement found its inception within the ranks of our state press association some years ago, there has long been a feeling in the western section, and especially in that community where Nye lived and moved, that something more than a nameless stone should keep in mind the genial spirit whose gospel was sunshine and whose creed was good cheer.

"True, the block of granite which now does sentry duty over Nye's grave in the lonely country churchyard at Arden mutely expresses the dying wishes of the humorist, but we would not be disregarding those wishes were we to erect, by means of popular subscription, a marble shaft which would in some measure express the regard and veneration we feel for the man with whom all of us laughed and wept by turns.

"It is fitting and proper that the movement to perpetuate the memory of Nye should find its reincarnation here, for he was one of us. The struggling vicissitudes of his early journalistic days could not dim the light of genius which shone so brightly in later years. We should not hesitate to go on record here and now, representing the North Carolina Press association, as setting on foot a movement to erect at our state capital a fitting monument to one of the greatest and most gifted humorists the world has ever known."

REWARD IS CRUEL

CITIZEN OF ST. LOUIS WOULD ENRICH MUNCIE, INDIANA, BUT IS JAILED.

POLICE OF THE CITY INTERFERED

Charles Morrisy, With Tramp Companion, Alights From Pullman and Startles Citizens With Shower of Money.

St. Louis, Mo., June 8.—Benevolence, which took the form of a public distribution of his money, yesterday, resulted in the arrest of Charles Morrisy of St. Louis, in Muncie, Ind.

Morrisy was trying to give away all the funds in his possession. He apparently was well supplied with gold, silver and currency, and it did not require long for him to attract a crowd of those who considered it blessed to receive.

Accompanying Morrisy was a tramp, who protested to the Muncie police when they endeavored to prevent further distribution of the St. Louisian's wealth. Mirrisy dewarded his protest by declaring, as the two started for jail, that he would not desert the tramp in "an hour of peril."

While expressing admiration for the tramp's loyalty and affection in warm, if somewhat loosely connected sentences, Morrisy did not neglect to tell the police what he thought of their interference with his personal liberty. As an American citizen, possessed of money, he declared it was his privilege to do as he pleased with it.

"I've already given away two centuries," declared Morrissy.

Insisting that their policy of conservation was to Morrisy's interest, the police temporarily forgot all about the constitution of the United States, the Magna Charta and every other document applicable to the situation.

At the jail it was said Morrisy would be held until he was in condition to appreciate his own benevolence. It was estimated it would require something like ten or twelve hours.

Morrisy reached Muncie yesterday morning, accompanied by the tramp. They traveled in a Pullman. Morrisy was well dressed, and his appearance contrasted greatly with that of his companion. He declined to give his St. Louis address further than to say that he was "from Olive street."

Rain Again Delays Farmers.

(From Sunday's Daily)

The downpour of rain Friday night and Saturday, with the mercury standing at 50 degrees, soaked the earth and made all of the streams more than bankfull. Many farmers were just winding up their already late corn planting, and this further delay gave them a large case of the blues.

MYSTERY IN CAMP

VISIT OF EDDIE GRANEY CAUSING THE WISE ONES TO WONDER.

THIS WAS IN THE JEFFRIES CAMP

Jeffries and Corbet Did Not Box Yesterday Afternoon, But Engaged in a Handball Game Which Almost Ended in a Row.

Ben Lomond, Cal., June 8.—Closely following the managerial row in the negro champion's camp there are indications of something brewing in Jeffries' quarters. Just what is in the air cannot be learned, but the presence of Eddie Graney, the San Francisco referee, and "Jack" Gleason, one of the promoters of the big fight, has given rise to more or less speculation.

It is true that Graney, who has refereed many fights, says that he came to Ben Lomond merely to see Jeffries and Corbet in action in their first sparring bout, but it is equally true that this explanation is not being generally accepted around the camp.

It is recalled that Graney and Sam Berger, Jeffries' manager, are anything but friendly; in fact, do not make any attempt to disguise their real feeling toward each other, and stories about the camp have it that the presence of the "Honest Blacksmith" does not augur well for Sam.

Gleason also refuses to go into details regarding the object that he, like Graney, came here to see Jeffries and "Gentleman Jim" in action. Jeffries' good humor seems to be the best barometer of conditions in the camp, and if there are any disturbing winds blowing as a result of Gleason's and Graney's visit, they have not yet reflected themselves in the moods of the big fellow.

For the second time the first boxing bout between Jeffries and Corbett suffered a postponement and disappointed a large crowd of fight enthusiasts who came down from San Francisco to see the former champion and the undefeated one in action. At the last moment Jeffries decided to await the completion of his outdoor ring before using the gloves with Corbett. All the materials for the ring are on hand but the finishing touches must be put on by an expert carpenter who came from San Francisco on this evening's train. He expects to have the ring completed in time for Jeffries and Corbett to do their first sparring tomorrow.

Camp visitors were entertained with a warmly contested game of handball between the two ex-champions which was refereed by "Jack" Gleason. The two big fellows to the delight of the crowd, got into a heated argument over a ball which Jeffries claimed was fair. Corbett wa equally insistent that it was foul. The altercation waxed noisy and the game came near breakin; up into a row. Disregarding the referee, who had not seen the ball, and hence was loath to rule, Jeffries and Corbett tried to settle it between themselves. Corbett's good nature triumphed, and when things were warmest Jeffries suddenly admitted that Corbett had out-talked him and gave in. He was molified by winning the game.

TURN LOOSE $5,000,000

Work Ordered Suspended to Be Resumed Next Friday.

Washington, D. C., June 8.—President W. C. Brown of the New York Central was so pleased at the way in which President Taft has treated the railroads in the present controversy over rates, that he said last night he would order the resumption of all work on the Central which he ordered suspended on Friday last.

This work, it was said at that time, would require the expenditure of $5,000,000. It had to do with improving stations, building new ones, laying of additional tracks and making yard and roadbed improvements.

The Central also will permit the Pressed Steel Car company, the Standard Steel Car company and the American Steel Car company of Pittsburg to go ahead with orders given them some time ago for 3,000 new freight cars, which it was estimated would cost about $1,000 apiece. The orders for these cars were canceled on Friday also.

Commenting on the agreement reached with the administration yesterday, President Brown said:

"It was just as good an arrangement as could have been made. It is so satisfactory that I intend to order the resumption of work on the Central which was ordered stopped last week."

Further comment, Mr. Brown said, was unneccessary.

WANT HOME FOR THE ELKS

The National Meeting of the Order to Be Asked to Build It.

Excelsior Springs, Mo., June 9.—When the national convention of the Elks meets in Detroit in a few weeks it will be asked to build the new national home for its members in Excelsior Springs.

Elks throughout the country have become much dscouraged in recent years because the order has not provided a national home centrally located and conducted in a manner to make it attractive to superannuated members and creditable to the builders.

The present national home in Indiana has never been successful. It has been the bugaboo of the order for years. A committee appointed a year ago will report in the Detroit convention favoring, it is believed, a new home in a middle western state.

Elks from several western cities have been staying at the New Elms this week. They are much interested in the proposed national home and are favorable to Excelsior Springs.

FORMAL ANNOUNCEMENT MADE OF THE ENGAGEMENT OF MISS LILLIE BRANDT.

FUNCTION WAS GIVEN LAST NIGHT

At Party Given By Miss Maude Brandt It Was Made Public That Miss Brandt and C. M. Jones Are to Be Married.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

In tiny nut-shells the news of the engagement of Miss Lillie Brandt, the pretty and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Brandt, of 508 West Fifth street, was given to seven young lady friends Monday evening at a complimentary dining at the home of Miss Maude Brandt, 416 West Fifth street.

The young ladies to receive the news first were Misses Grace Carman, Drue Kelly, Inez Ellison and Mesdames Ed Henry and Louis Carroll, the latter of Manchester, Ohio. The list of guests at the party included also Miss Goldie Brandt, Maud Brandt and the bride-to-be, Miss Lillie Brandt.

Miss Brandt is to wed Mr. Charles M. Jones, of Indianapolis, Ind. The young people met while Miss Brandt was a student at the Indianapolis Conservatory of Music.

The wedding will occur June 15 at 8:30 o'clock p. m., at the bride's home. Rev. L. W. Sifford, pastor of Trinity English Lutheran church, will perform the ceremony. There will be no attendants. Miss Goldie Brandt, sister of the bride, will play the wedding march, and Mrs. Dr. Pennisson, sister of the groom-to-be, will sing a solo.

Following the ceremony, a wedding dinner will be served, and at midnight the couple will leave for Indianapolis, where they will be at home at 1019 LaSalle street, after June 18.

Miss Brandt is one of Sedalia's refined and talented young ladies. Her ability as a musician is widely known throughout the state, and her charming personality and sweet disposition insure her making a lovable wife.

The bridegroom-to-be is a popular young gentleman of the Hoosier capital, and bears a most enviable reputation in his home city. In anticipation of the approaching nuptials a legion of friends will extend congratulations to the happy couple.

At the dining Monday evening Miss Brandt was assisted with the serving by her sisters, Misses Gertrude and Lucile, and the bride-to-be's mother, Mrs. John Brandt. The menu was served in courses—tomato consomme, Saratoga flakes, chicken dressing, cream potatoes in shells and cream peas forming the first, which was followed with banana salad, dinner biscuits, orange ice, cakes and mints. The decorations were Kilarney roses and smilax.

TO ASSIST PASTOR

OFFICIAL BOARD OF FIRST M. E. CHURCH EMPLOYS A DEACONESS.

MEETING IS HELD MONDAY NIGHT

Miss Lucy Curtis, a Training School Graduate, to Come Here June 15th to Assist Rev. Grant A. Robbins.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

At a meeting of the official board of the First Methodist Episcopal church, held Monday night, Miss Lucy Curtis, who is at present visiting home folks at Scandia, Kan., was employed as deaconess, and is expected to report here for duty on June 15, so that the pastor, the Rev. Grant A. Robbins, may outline in detail her work preliminary to his departure on the morning of July 4 for a three months' European trip.

For several months past Dr. Robbins and the officers of the church have been searching for a suitable person to become assistant to the pastor in his manifold works outside of the pulpit, and Miss Curtis, who is a training school graduate, was recommended most highly by persons most intimately acquainted with her.

For some time past Miss Curtis has been employed as deaconess in Kansas City and Independence, and has been doing a splendid work. There was doubt as to the First church being able to secure her services, but the effort was crowned with success and the members are to be congratulated.

The duties of Miss Curtis will be to visit the families of the members, especially in sickness and death, and to work in the interest of the children of the Sunday school and the young people's societies. This will take a vast amount of work off the hands of Dr. Robbins, the pastor, and leave him more time to devote to the male membes of his flock.

Miss Curtis will wear a garb of black, with a white bow, and will also wear a black bonnet, something after the style of the Sisters of Charity. She is said to be a young woman of pleasing personality, with the ability to make friends quickly and retain them, and the Democrat-Sentinel, on behalf of the good people of Sedalia, extends to her a most royal welcome.

TO WRECK A TRAIN

TWO CAMDEN COUNTY YOUTHS MADE THE ATTEMPT IN COLE COUNTY.

PUT IN JAIL AT JEFFERSON CITY

Attempted to Board a Train While Intoxicated and Were Ejected—Put Obstructions on the Track for Revenge.

Jefferson City, Mo., June 7.—Walter Cornett, aged 21, and his cousin, Elmer Cornett, aged 20, of Camden county, are in jail here charged with attempting to wreck a Rock Island rain near Henley, in the southern part of Cole county Sunday.

They attempted to board a west bound passenger train at Henley, it is asserted, while drunk, and they were ejected by the conductor.

A few hours later, it is alleged, they piled obstructions on the track at two different points west of Henley. The railroad agent flagged an east bound train in time to prevent a wreck. He then hunted up a constable and had the Cornetts arrested.

The prisoners were sober and penitent last night when landed in jail, and it is said each charges the other with being the instigator in placing the obstructions on the track.

They are unsophisticated youths who work in the tie choppings in Camden county.

MRS. LEACH DEAD

"MOTHER" OF BROTHERHOOD OF LOCOMOTIVE FIREMEN DROPPED DEAD IN OMAHA.

GOING TO NATIONAL CONVENTION

Stopped in Nebraska City for Dinner, When Final Summons Came—Remains Will Be Brought to Sedalia as Soon as Possible.

(From Sunday's Daily)

Mrs. Joshua A. Leach, known in every state of the union as "the mother" of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen of the United States, died suddenly from heart failure shortly after eating dinner in the Almanson House at Omaha, Neb., Saturday afternoon. The news of her death was flashed to Sedalia at 3:55 p. m. yesterday by Mr. Leach, who was with his wife when she died.

Mrs. Leach and husband left Sedalia Friday afternoon for St. Paul, Minn., to attend the national convention of the B. of L. F. and E. The train on which they were riding stopped at Omaha to permit the passengers to take dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Leach, according to a telephone message received last night, entered the dining room of the hotel. The latter had just finished the meal when she toppled over onto the floor. Almost instantly she passed into a state of unconsciousness and died in a few minutes without regaining the use of her reason.

The news of Mrs. Leach's sudden demise, coming so unexpectedly, caused a shock to all who were acquainted with her loveable disposition and who had shared her kind sympathy, which she was always ready to extend to those in need.

Mrs. Leach was formerly Miss Sarah A. Tuttle, of Port Jarvis, N. Y., where she was married to Mr. Leach on April 23, 1864, exactly forty-six years ago. On December 4, last, she was 70 years of age and for the past twenty-six years was an esteemed and devout member of the Epworth M. E. church

At the time of her death she was first past grand president of the B. of L. F. and E., in which organization she always manifested the keenest interest, and was also a member of the Loyal Rebekahs and the Knights and Ladies of Security, and had been a member of the Woman's Relief Corps, an auxiliary to the G. A. R., since its inception in Sedalia years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Leach resided at 1507 East Seventh street in a residence presented to them by the brotherhood, which organization Mr. Leach founded in the United States years ago, the organization first being known as the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, later changing the name to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen.

Mr. and Mrs. Leach were the parents of nine children, only two of whom are surviving, as follows: Frank S. Leach, superintendent of the Home Telephone company, and Mrs. Robert Cunningham, wife of a lineman for that company, both of this city.

Mrs. Leach also leaves a sister, Mrs. Clara Devinney, of Buffalo, N. Y.

The remains will be brought to Sedalia at the earliest possible moment, but until they arrive funeral arrangements will not be made.

Mrs. Leach was one of the most widely known women in the United States, due to her association with the brotherhood, which her husband founded, and which was never to irksome to require all of her attention day or night.

Almost every national, as well as state, convention of the brotherhood witnessed the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Leach and local meetings never failed to note the attendance of one or the other, always giving wholesome advice and thought to the members of the organization, the betterment of which seemed to be their one aim in life during their declining years.

HAD DRAWN $5,000 FROM A BANK

After Doing a Little Shopping, Sum of $3,000 Was Missing—Was He the Victim of Shrewd Daylight Robbery Monday.

Ashville, N. C., June 7—When George Cooke, paymaster for the Hans Rees Sons' tannery reached the company's office about 2 o'clock last afternoon, after drawing $5,000 out of a bank to meet the pay roll, he found to his utter astonishment that the money was not in the suit case where he had placed it. He believes that he was the victim of a shrewd broad daylight robbery.

After he left the bank, he said, he went into one or two stores of the city and believes that while his attention was engaged in a store some nimble fingers opened the case and removed some $3,000, which he could not account for.

Exactly how much was either lost or stolen would not be made known by the authorities, but that the money was missing was admitted at the company's office.

Detectives are working on the case.

CAR TURNED OVER

PRESENCE OF MIND OF AN ENGINEER HELD PASSENGERS IN THEIR SEATS.

THIS SAVED THEM FROM INJURY

Smoking Car Left Rails and Truned Over on Its Side—Several Were Bruised, But Not One Seriously Hurt.

Mount Vernon, N. Y., June 7.—The presence of mind of Thomas Smith, an engineer of the New Haven railroad, who was off duty, calling to his fellow passengers in the smoker attached to the Boston express, which was the only car of the train that jumped the tracks at West New Rochelle Junction last afternoon, to "hold tight to the seats," saved them from injury.

The car turned over on its side while traveling at the rate of twenty miles an hour, and, although every window glass was smashed and the trucks torn from beneath the coach, not a single passenger was injured.

The smoker contained about thirty-five men, and they all seized the arms of the seats in a grip of steel.

A few moments later the car turned over and crashed into a ditch. Broken glass was scattered in all directions but, strange to say, not a single passenger was seriously injured.

Several men were bruised and many suffered from the jar, but they were all able to proceed to New York.

GOT ANOTHER DEGREE

Col. Roosevelt Delivered Address and Secured Honor from Oxford.

Oxford, England, June 7.—Roosevelt was the guest of Oxford today. He delivered the Romanes lecture and the university conferred upon him the honorary degree of Doctor of Civil Laws. The lecture and conferment constituted the big feature of the day, but it did not complete the program, which was about as crowded as any that the distinguished American has undertaken in his European travels. Lord Curzon, chancellor of the university, presided at the exercises. Roosevelt's subject was "Biological Analogies in History."

RAISE THE WAGES

OF FIRE[illegible] AND ENGINEMEN ON FIFTY-ONE WESTERN RAILWAYS.

INCREASE OF TWELVE PER CENT

Demands Granted When It Was Shown That the Increased Cost of Living Made Necessary a Raise in Wages.

Chicago, June 6.—Twenty-seven thousand employes on fifty-one railroads operating west, northwest and southwest of Chicago will receive a wage increase aggregating $3,000,000 a year as a result of a decision given Saturday by the arbitration board chosen some time ago to pass upon the demands of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen for an increase in pay. The award of the arbitrators means an increase in wages all along the line ranging between 10 and 12 per cent.

It was the conclusion of the arbitrators that this advance should be given solely because the cost of living has advanced at a very substantial rate. Leading features of the decision announced by the arbitration board include the following:

Firemen in main line and passenger service shall be granted an increase of 15 cents per 100 miles or less.

Firemen in through and irregular freight, mixed, work, wreck, gravel, helper, pusher, snow plow and branch service (except Mallet type engine) shall be granted an increase of 15 cents per 100 miles or less, provided that on coal burning engines firemen in this service shall receive an additional increase of 15 cents per 100 miles or less.

Firemen in local or way freight service shall be granted an increase of 25 cents per 100 miles or less over through freight rates established by this arbitration, except on roads having an eight-hour day or twelve and one-half miles per hour basis for such runs. On lines where increased rates are now allowed in local or way freight service over through freight rates such differentials will be maintained.

Firemen on Mallet type engines shall receive $4 per 100 miles or less in all classes of service. This rate shall also apply on lines where the schedules provide for trip basis in helper or pusher service in accordance with rules in effect.

Firemen in yard service shall be granted an increase of 25 cents a day. Where the rate of pay is provided for transfer service, firemen shall be granted an increase of 25 cents a day. On lines where rates of pay are negotiated through the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen committee for hostlers, engineers and engine dispatchers, such employes shall be granted an increase of 25 cents per day Overtime shall be paid pro rata.

It was announced by the arbitrators that the increases awarded shall be retroactive as of May 16 last. In the negotiations with the employes the railroads were represented by Vice President and General Manager Nixon, of the Frisco.

HAVE YOU SUM OF $34.59?

If Wealth Were Divided Equally You Should Have.

Washington, June 6.—Treasury officials figure out that if all the money in circulation in the United States were divided equally every man, woman and child would have $34.59. This is fourteen cents per capita more than they should have had by the same process of reasoning a month ago.

Compared with a year ago there was on June 1, $14,000,000 more money in circulation and yet the per capita was forty-two cents less. This is due to the increase in population, it being proportionately more than the growth of the circulating medium.

The general stock of money in the United States, June 1, was $3,419,382,284, of which $298,076,537 was held in the treasury as assets of the government.

New Sign for the "Katy."

The "Katy Limited," one of the passenger trains of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railroad, will have an observation and electric sign, due to the work of Henry Drew, of Parsons, Kas, a conductor.

JEFF LOOKS GOOD

THE ONCE CHAMPION SHOWED SPEED IN THREE ROUND BOUT ON SUNDAY.

CORBETT AND CHOYNSKI'S STUNT

They Are to Appear In Frisco for a Benefit—Jeffries Was Asked to Appear, But He Declined the Honor.

Ben Lomond, Cal., June 6.—Jim Jeffries performed prettily Sunday before 500 spectators in his training camp gymnasium. Three rounds of speedy sparring with Joe Choynski set the crowd wild with delight. The pace was so fast that it is doubtful if Choynski could have gone many more rouids.

Jeffries came out of it smilingly. He was in rare good humor and boxed with his face to the crowd, so that they could get a good look at him. The gymnasium programme included rope skipping, bag punching, shadow boxing and a short tug at the chest weights.

Another little sparring match not on the programme was the feature of the day. The principals were Jim Corbett and Joe Choynski, who had been bitter enemies since their last battle in 1889 until they met recently here. Now they are inseparable cronies. They happened to come together with the gloves in this way yesterday:

After Jeffries had finished his ring work John Martin, chief of police of San Francisco, who was down for the afternoon, drew Jeffries aside and asked him to appear in an exhibition in San Francisco June 11 for the benefit of a fraternal order. Jeffries said that he would like to accommodate the chief, but that it would be impossible for him to break his training.

"I can't take a chance," he said, "of a change of cooking or water; besides it would cut into my regular sleeping hours."

Corbett and Choynksi happened to overhear the conversation. They at once volunteered their services, offering to appear in a three-round exhibition. Their offer was accepted and after Jeffries had gone out the two old cronies decided to start in training with each other right away.

They stepped through three rounds, each careful not to hurt the other. Although the pace was slow it told on Corbett and he was breathing heavily at the finish. The announcement that the two veterans were at it drew a crowd running to the gymnasium.

Final arrangements for the moving pictures of the fight will be signed by the representatives of the two camps in San Francisco Tuesday. Manager Sam Berger returned to camp last night after making the picture details in San Francisco. Promoter Jack Gleason called on Jeffries Sunday and held a long conversation with him. He said he came down for pleasure only and left for home last night.

Jeffries motored down to Santa Cruz last night and will spend today fishing in Montery bay.

KILLED BY WORRY

J. M. PROCTOR, FATHER OF MRS. ALMA VAUGHN, DIED ON THE SABBATH.

WAS WORRIED OVER ACCUSATION

Gave Liberally to Many Causes and Divided $100,000 With His Children a Year Ago—The Funeral on Tuesday.

Monroe City, Mo., June 6.—J. M. Proctor, one of the wealthiest residents of North Missouri, died at his home in Monroe City Sunday morning. He was 73 years old.

Mr. Proctor was the father of Mrs. Alma Proctor Vaughn, indicted jointly with Dr. James R. Hull, of Monroe City, on a charge of poisoning her husband, Prof. John Thomas Vaughn, of the chair of American history at the Kirksville state normal school, and widely known as an educator and author.

The accusation against his daughter, whom he idolized on account of her wit and beauty, is believed to have hastened his death.

Mr. Proctor had suffered from heart disease for several years, but a few months before Mrs. Vaughn was indicted he had been greatly improved.

Friends believe that the immediate cause of his death was a broken heart over the accusations against his daughter, whom he could believe to be only innocent.

Mr. Proctor was universally beloved in Monroe county, where he had lived since he was a young man. He was a native of Kentucky and was related to many of the most distinguished families of that state as well as those of Missouri.

His relatives not only in Northeast Missouri, but throughout the state, are leaders in business, professional and social affairs.

In addition to his bank and agricultural holdings in Monroe county, Mr. Proctor and numerous Missouri associates were interested in lands and cattle raising in Texas. About one year ago he gave $100,000 worth of property to his children. His gifts to many causes were numerous.

He was a Knight Templar, for thirty-eight years treasurer of Bethel Baptist association, and deacon and charter member of the First Baptist church of Monroe City. The funeral will be conducted at the church Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mr. Proctor is survived by the widow and eight children: Mrs. Ellen Proctor Brown, of Lexington, Ky.; Thomas and Zach Proctor, live stock commission men of Chicago; Mrs. Alma Proctor Vaughn, of Monroe City; Mrs. Mattie Johnson, of Texas; Mrs. Anna Baker, of Fort Worth, Texas; James M. Proctor, Jr., of Monroe City, and David M. Proctor, an attorney of Kansas City.

SUICIDE IN ITALY

SWOLLEN FROM 836 CASES IN 1871 TO A TOTAL OF 2,686 IN THE YEAR 1908.

CAUSES ARE REDUCED TO THREE

There Are "Wounded Pride," "Deluded Avarice" and "Real or Imaginary Love Affairs"—Not to Have Solemn Funerals.

International News Service.

Milan, June 4.—Bishop Bonomelli, of Cremona, a well known veteran liberal prelate, publishes a remarkable personal letter regarding the alarming growth of suicide in Italy, which has swollen from 836 cases in the year 1871 to 2,686 suicides in 1908, in which year the number of female cases stood at 610 as against 152 in 1871.

The bishop, after noting that suicide and homicide are usually found to develop on lines of inverse ratio, maintains that all the varied suicidal causes enumerated by science are really reducable to three, namely—wounded pride, deluded avarice and real or imaginary love betrayals.

Then how explain, asks the illustrious churchman, that though these three passions have tormented mankind throughout the centuries, the suicide mania, in its never-ceasing advance, is a peculiar mark of our time? Bishop Bonomelli recognizes that the new social conditions created by material progress are largely responsible, but insists that the main cause is the spirit of irreligion which stalks abroad, flaunting a romantic literature that glorifies the act of self murder, a melodrama that culminates in a grand coup, generally of dual suicide, and so planned as to bid for the sympathy of the audience, and finally a yellow press that by giving undue prominence to its suicide chronicle disposes its readers either to regard the phenomenon as commonplace or else as so uncommon as not to call for censure.

Monsignor Bonomelli is firmly persuaded as to the outcome of over years' episcopal experience that it is a stern, regrettable necessity from a christian and social standpoint of view to maintain a clear distinction by withholding solemn funerals in the case of persons who voluntarily take their own lives.

"Katy" Depot Was Burned.

During the heavy thunder storm Saturday morning the M., K. & T. depot of Montrose was struck by lightning and totally destroyed by fire, says the Clinton Democrat.

The bolt came about 5:30 o'clock and roomers in the Schaade hotel, just across the track, were temporarily thrown into a panic.

The hotel was ignited several times by the heat from the burning depot, but close watching and the pouring rain enabled the workers to prevent the fire from spreading, thus causing but slight damage.

STATEMENT MADE

BEN GALLIE, A MISSOURI PACIFIC MACHINIST, EXPLAINS RECENT OCCURRENCE.

CROWD OUT ON A CHARIVARI

Says They Stopped at Coughlin Home and a Few Remarks Were There Made, But No Profanity Was Used.

(From Sunday's Daily)

Mr. Ben Gallie, the well known Missouri Pacific machinist and resident of East Sedalia, called at the Democrat-Sentinel office this afternoon and made the following statement in regard to the complaint of Mr. and Mrs. Coughlin to the effect that six men had disturbed the peace of Mrs. Coughlin on the night of June 1st:

"On the evening of June 1 Mr. Roy Jenkins, a boilermakers' apprentice, and Miss Pearl Guinn, a daughter of the Missouri Pacific boilermaker, were married at the residence of the bride's parents, at No. 424 East Howard street. A large crowd of friends of the young people, composed chiefly of the young men who reside in that part of town, gathered at the Guinn home and gave the couple an old-time charivari and during the festivities one of the number discharger a shotgun five or six times from the front porch of the Guinn home.

"Four of the number who joined in the charivari passed by the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Coughlin, at Fifth street and New York avenue, on their way to the wedding. As they passed the Coughlin home they met four little girls, six or eight years of age, and one of these girls spoke up and said that Mr. Coughlin was a scab and that his children were scabs. Mrs. Coughlin, who was seated on the porch, overheard the girl's remarks and called out and said: 'You don't know what a scab is.' One of the four men then said: 'There is one sitting along the side of you,' referring to a gendleman who was seated on the porch near Mrs. Coughlin and whom the men supposed was Mr. Coughlin. There was no profanity used by any of these men and no revolver fired or any other noise or disturbance made, and there were some three or four other men in a swing at the Coughlin home. This occurred just about dark and the shooting at the Guinn home did not happen until about an hour later, and this was the only shooting that the men who attended the wedding know anything about. The Guinn and Coughlin residences are about six blocks apart."

WOMEN ARRESTED

QUARTET IN CUSTODY IN NEW YORK CITY ON CHARGE OF SMUGGLING.

WERE NOT QUITE CLEVER ENOUGH

With the Airs of Innocence Lusitania's Fair Passengers Submit to Search Revealing Dutiable Articles.

New York, June 4.—Four finely gowned women from Kenosha, Wis., who refused to give the customs men any definite information about themselves, arrived yesterday on the Lusitania with nine trunks and an air of innocence that seemed to the uniformed sleuths too obtrusive to be genuine.

The eldest of the quartet, Mrs. C. W. Allen, said that none of the nine trunks had anything dutiable in them, and that she and her party made up of her daughter, Gertrude, Mrs. C. D. Creiger and Miss Ethel Summer, had nothing dutiable in the form of jewelry bought aboard, or on their persons.

She finally amended her original declaration and admitted that she and her party had altogether $160 worth of stuff over and above the $600 worth that the party was entitled to bring in free.

Inspector Cunningham went over the trunks with more than usual care. The first lid lifted revealed a lot of gowns that were brand new and evidently bought on the other side.

They were told that they would have to submit to personal search by two inspectoresses, and were ordered into a stateroom and searched.

The result was that Mrs. Allen gave up a pearl necklace valued at about $2,000 and a pearl brooch worth about $350. Six pieces of jewelry valued in all at less than $1,000 were taken from the three other women.

Deputy Surveyor Raczkiewicz put the four women under arrest, charged with smuggling. They were taken to the customs house and after being arraigned were paroled in the custody of Lawyer Smith until Monday, when there will be an examination before Commissioner Shields.

Their trunks were seized and sent to the public storage until Commissioner Shields disposes of the matter.

(From Sunday's Daily)

Charles F. Walch's cafe, 111-113 West Second street, was damaged to the extent of $1,000 during the rain early Saturday morning.

The cafe was undergoing repairs and improvements, and the tinners who were engaged in placing a new roof on the building forgot to cover the unsheltered roof Friday night.

Yesterday morning's rain beat down into the cafe building, badly damaging seven rooms on the second floor of the building. The rain was so heavy that new furnishings will have to be purchased for each of the seven rooms.

MUST WATCH OUT

INSURGENTS AND DEMOCRATS HAVEN'T WON RAILROAD BILL FIGHT YET.

CONFERENCE MAY UNDO WORK

Senator LaFollette Sounds Warning That the Country Is Watching Movements Made by the Senators.

International News Service.

Washington, June 4.—When Senator LaFollette last night, in announcing his purpose to vote for the railroad bill, sounded a warning that the country would hold them responsible for the bill to strict accountability for the happenings in conference, he spoke not only for himself, but for the insurgents and democrats who have stood together in their fight to improve the measure over what it was when it first was presented to congress.

It is expected that an effort will be made to kill the amendments forced into the bill to protect the rights of the public and shippers against the encroachments of the common carriers. The managers of the measure had to accept the amendments in order to pass the bill and their retention at the final stage depends upon the vigilance of the insurgents. The republican managers of the conference on the part of the senate will probably be Elkins, Cullom and Aldrich.

All three are classed as railroad senators. Tillman, of South Carolina, is the ranking minority member of the committee. He is ill and absent from Washington. The next two democrats in line are Foster, of Louisiana, and Newlands, of Nevada. Foster has frequently supported the propositions of the committee and voted with Aldrich.

A study of the probable personnel of the conference committee therefore would seem to justify the suspicion of the insurgents that the drastic amendments may be toned down before the bill comes up for final passage.

MISSOURI'S CROPS

BOARD OF AGRICULTURE HAS ISSUED ITS REPORT FOR JUNE.

MONTH OF MAY UNFAVORABLE

Hailstorms Have Destroyed Crops in Many Localities, and Local Floods Have Also Done Not Little Damage.

Columbia, Mo., June 6.—The following crop report was issued today from the office of T. C. Wilson, secretary of the Missouri state board of agriculture:

The month of May was a very unfavorable one for Missouri farmers, owing to the excessive rainfall and unusually low temperature. With the exception of a few counties in the southern part of the state and a limited territory in Northwest Missouri, where it was too dry early in the season, reports from every part tell of too much rain. Many correspondents state that fields were dry enough to work only a few days during the entire month. Not only has the weather been unseasonably cool, but there has been a minimum of sunshine. However, the ground is working much better than weather conditions would seem to indicate. Hailstorms have destroyed crops in a few neighborhoods and local floods have done damage over limited areas, but so far no general losses from overflows have been reported.

The following reports give a fair idea as to general conditions in the five crop division sections of the state:

Northeast section, Montgomery county—"Just now the outlook is anything but promising for crops, with the exception of the oat crop which is excellent. Continuous rains have caused a delay of four weeks in corn planting. Grass and weeds are giving much trouble. Prospects are the melon crop will be a failure. Potatoes are doing very well and some garden truck is good."

Northeast section, Lincoln county—"Corn is in bad shape on account of wet weather. Can not finish planting nor cultivate. What corn came up is very yellow and weak looking."

Northwest section, Atchison county—"Weather was very cool all through May. Considerable number of showers, but no hard rains. Stand of corn not good. A good deal to be planted yet. Have not seen as much replanting in fifteen years. Some due to poor seed, some on account of planting too soon."

Northwest section, DeKalb county—"The first of June finds the corn crop in very bad condition. So wet the farmers can not plant. Very little of the early planting is a good stand, and it is weedy and yellow. Wheat is thin on ground and spotted."

Central section, Cole county—"Continuous wet weather during the entire month of May has delayed corn planting, so that there is practically not more corn planted than there was a month ago. Cut worms and hard rains have caused some corn to be planted second time. Oats and grass fine, but old clover very short. Early planted corn getting weedy."

Central section, Randolph county—"The crop is light and not much more than seed will be harvested, counting acreage sown last fall. At least half of the corn crop will be late and 15 or 20 per cent will be planted over too much rain and cool weather."

Southwest section, Bates county—"Present outlook for corn crop is unfavorable. Fields having a fairly good stand are getting foul. Cultivation, also the planting yet to be done is delayed on account of continued rainfall. Wheat is being damaged some on low lands, and meadows appear to have been winter killed to some extent, and, of course, weeds will occupy those spaces."

Southeast section, Christian county—"Corn is small, being cultivated second time. Never saw so poor a stand. Oats the largest crop with the best promise I have even seen. While we have had no heavy rains, showers are too frequent. Wheat is just coming into bloom, and if the showers continue it will not fill to make a good yield."

Southeast section, Madison county—"This has been a very cool, dry month. Unusual conditions have prevailed. There has been a good deal of complaint about the Hessian fly in the wheat, but conditions seem to have improved."

Southeast section, Dent county—"Hessian flies have appeared in sufficient numbers to seriously damage wheat, although recent favorable weather has improved it as well as other crops."

Corn—Corn planting, which was commenced much earlier this year than usual, was greatly interferred with throughout the month of May by too much rain. The estimated per centage of the crop now planted throughout the state is 80.5, as compared with 91.2 one year ago. One month ago 46.7 per cent of the crop had been planted, only 33.8 per cent being planted during the month of May. Of the part planted it is estimated that 23.3 per cent has been or will be replanted. Reports of poor stands are general, a number of correspondents reporting corn to be planted over the second time. The condition of the growing crop is placed at 67.2, as compared with 83.8 one year ago, or 80.2 as the ten year average. A preliminary estimate of the acreage places it at 101.2, as compared with last year, when it was 7,205,396. Should wet weather continue the final figures may show a decrease.

Wheat—Reports show the condition of wheat for the state to be 66, as compared with 70.5 one month ago, 64.4 one year ago, and 80.3 as the ten year average for June 1. A number of correspondents report some improvement, but this is more than offset by the unfavorable reports from many counties, where damage has been done by the Hessian fly. Wheat harvest will begin in from two to five weeks, depending upon the territory. The average of the reports for the state places the time until wheat will be ripe at 3.7 weeks.

Oats—The outlook for a good oat crop is favorable throughout the state, the condition being placed at 91.2 as compared with 93.2 one month ago 83.8 one year ago, and 77 as the ten year average.

Clover, timothy and other crops—The condition of the old clover crop is placed at 73.6, new clover crop at 85.6, alfalfa 84.6, timothy 97.7, flax 86.4.

Tobacco—A preliminary estimate of the tobacco acreage places it at 112 per cent, as compared with last year. Condition is given as 77.5.

Pastures—Pastures are generally poor and cattle and other stock are not doing as well as usual, owing to the "washy" condition of the grass. Condition of pastures is placed at 81.4.

Cotton—The condition of the cotton crop is 73.9; the preliminary estimate of the acreage as compared with last year, 114.5, and part of crop planted 92.8.

Wool and lambs—The average wool clip (unwashed wool) is estimated at 6.6 pounds per sheep for the state. Lack of warm weather to bring out the grease is responsible for the lighter weight. The per cent of lambs raised, as compared with ewes in flock is given as 85.6.

Following is a summary of reports of correspondents:

Corn, part planted — Northeast, 72.2; northwest, 83.1; central, 75; southwest, 86.9; southeast, 85.3; state, 80.5.

Corn, to plant over— Northeast, 28.7; northwest, 46.3; central, 22.1; southwest, 23.2; southeast, 21; state, 28.3.

Corn, condition—Northeast, 65.9; northwest, 65.9; central, 67.4; southwest, 69.2; southeast, 67.6; state, 67.2.

Wheat, condition—Northeast, 57.3; northwest, 70; central, 61.4; southwest, 80; southeast, 76.2; state, 69.

Oats, condition—Northeast, 95.1; northwest, 88.7; central, 94.6; southwest, 92.1; southeast, 85.4; state, 91.2.

GIRL OF 19 VICTIM

TWO FIENDS LURED PAULINE KRAYEKA TO BARN IN BROOKLYN.

ONE ARREST IS MADE BY POLICE

Young Woman Was Most Cruelly Tortured With Hatpins—Swoons at the Sight of a "Human Arm."

New York, June 6.—Pauline Krayeka, of No. 197 East Third street, Manhattan, 19 years old, and of unusually attractive appearance, was taken to the Norwegian hospital, at Brooklyn, Saturday, after having been lured to a barn on Sixty-fourth street, near Eleventh avenue, Brooklyn, where she was mistreated with almost incredible brutality.

Two young men lured the girl to the barn on the pretext of showing her the way to a trolley car she wanted to take. Forced into the barn, her clothing was torn off and she was bound and then subjected to torture until she became helpless.

The fiendish attackers, with the girl's hat pins, punctured her flesh from the soles of her feet to her head. They beat and bruised her, pounded her face with their fists and finally showed her what they said was the arm of their last victim—a woman who persisted in resisting them.

In the same barn where this attack occurred, another young woman, Helen Wilson, of No. 89 Adelphia street, Brooklyn, was attacked last Wednesday. She was not tortured and beaten, however, and the police apparently did not manifest much interest in her case.

The authorities became tremendously active in Miss Krayeka's case Saturday, however, and made an arrest within a few hours after detectives had visited the girl at the hospital.

The prisoner, James Murdock, admitted that he was in the barn Friday night, and that he knew that men in the barn had a woman there, but he denied having taken part in the attack.

He was taken before the girl in the hospital and she recognized him as a man who, she declared, had not only looked on at her torture, but had robbed her of $99 and a gold watch and chain. Murdock was locked up on a technical charge.

The girl's story of the outrage includes the following horrible details:

There was only the faint light of a candle in the barn and by its dim flicker the girl's assailants were only fitfully revealed. All had slouch hats pulled low over their foreheads.

As soon as the girl realized the purpose of the miscreants she fought and screamed and exerted all her strength to free herself. It was then the ruffians began gradually to torture her with hat pins and by pounding her with their fists.

They first stuck the hatpins into the soles of her feet and then into all parts of her body. When she still struggled the men brought out a ghastly white thing which they said was a woman's arm.

"We tore this from the last girl who was here," said one of the men, "and we will tear your arms out if you do not do as we wish."

At this the young girl swooned.

When the police later descended on the barn, they found a long polished gourd, fashioned to look like a human arm. This is what the girl's torturers had called the arm of their last victim, it is thought.

The surgeons at the hospital informed the police that it was impossible to imagine a worse case. The brutality of the girl's assailants, said the doctors, was almost without parallel.

Only the girl's hardy constitution may save her life. A more delicate woman would have died during her torment, the physicians declare.

WAS A GREAT CONCERT

Walter Damrosch Orchestra Gave Delightful Performance.

(From Sunday's Daily.)

An unusually large audience filled the Sedalia theater last night to hear the New York Symphony orchestra, Walter Damrosch directing, and the eminent soloist, Mme. Sarah Anderson, soprano, and Mr. Marcus Kellerman, basso.

The orchestra played superbly under the magic baton of Mr. Damrosch, and the audience was held spellbound throughout the entire program by the wonderful interpretation given each number.

Mme. Sarah Anderson, who possesses a voice of beautiful quality, captivated her audience in the singing of the Massenet aria, "Pleurez Mes Yeux." She displayed artistic ability, interpretation, shading and everything that goes to make a great singer. She graciously responded to the hearty applause with encores.

Mr. Marcus Kellerman sang "The Two Grenadiers" in a stirring manner and wonderful interpretation. He gave "Danny Deever" as an encore and displayed strong dramatic power in this well known composition of Walter Damrosch.

Should Mr. Damrosch with his orchestra and soloists return to Sedalia for another concert they will undoubtedly be greeted by another large audience.

The orchestra came here under the auspices of the Ladies' Musical club, and it deserves much praise for giving Sedalia an opportunity of listening to such wonderful music.

BIG MASS MEETING

EVERY SEDALIAN INVITED TO NEW SEDALIA THEATER AT 3 P. M. TODAY.

OPEN $50,000 Y. M. C. A. CAMPAIGN

Prominent Local Men and Mr. George T. Howser, Field Secretary, Will Speak—Render Splendid Musical Program.

(From Sunday's Daily)

Today one of the first effective steps in the great campaign for the $50,000 Y. M. C. A. building in Sedalia, which begins Wednesday, June 8, will be taken, and from that moment to the close, Saturday, June 18, this city will be clothed in an atmosphere of fellow recognition and needs, and the generosity of the public for this cause will be remembered by everyone so fortunate as to be here for the next fortnight.

Mr. Howser, who will make the principal address of the day, is a man of national prominence, and stands uniquely in the forefront of Young Men's Christian Associations throughout North America.

As field secretary he has devoted his life for more than a quarter of a century exclusively to the service of Y. M. C. A. organizations. He is a fluent speaker, a scholar and student of affairs, which in power, logic and uplifting inspiration has seldom if ever been equalled in Sedalia.

The qualifications of Mr. Howser were well known when he was selected as the chief speaker to usher in campaign week. You can expect a brilliant discussion of modern social needs, and of the way they are met by this wonderful club-univesity-mission-home organization known as the Young Men's Christian Association.

It is certain that no public spirited citizen will be absent without most excellent cause. No subscriptions to this fund will be taken at this meeting, and there will be no charge whatsoever for choice of any seat in the theater. Sedalia is going to raise that $50,000, and more, if need be, for what power can resist the splendid army of her best citizens, 150 strong, who enter this campaign with the enthusiasm of winning.

Here is the biggest opportunity this community has faced since it had the good luck to be set down in the center of the greatest state in the Union.

For a city like Sedalia what is $50,000 for such a cause? Really, it should not be necessary to extend the campaign limit to ten days. Judging from the numerous subscriptions already promised and such men of power at work it should be raised in half the time.

In about a year you are going to see this stately, beautiful building, and the person who has overlooked their chance to help pay for it and therefore does not receive practical dividends—or more than monetary value—from the investment is going to be ashamed to have their friends and relatives know it.

In real war the fellow who ducks out from the battle and runs away is never particularly proud about it the rest of his life. It's going to be the same way with this $50,000 building fight.

Sedalia is going to get this building just as sure as fate, for does not every one of the workers here named say so—and believe so sincerely—which spirit amounts to practically a positive guarantee of success.

Be sure to come to the big meeting today at the Sedalia theater at 3 p. m. Good music and an enjoyable time that will reveal the enthusiastic sentiment for this movement. There is a seat waiting to be filled by you. The ladies are especially requested to be present.

Following are the business men who are interested in the welfare of the boys and young men of Sedalia and who are willing to give liberally of money and time in order to raise $50,000 for a building:

FORMER SEDALIA GIRL

Miss Leah Van Riper Takes Principal Part in Play.

Every year the alumnae of Mary Institute entertain the graduates after commencement with a banquet, says Saturday's St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

This year Mrs. Philo Stevenson was chairman of the play committee, and "Angelina's Lovers" was presented. This is a new play in this country, having been performed at the Wyndham theater in London in 1903 with great success.

Miss Leah Van Riper took the principal part, that of "Angelina," a bride of six months. The part of "George," her husband, was personated by Miss Kyle Adams. Miss Laura Perry was "Betts," the maid, and the class enjoyed the fun of the performance most thoroughly.

At the banquet which preceded the play there were representatives from every class, beginning with 1864.

HUGH JENNINGS TO MARRY

Popular Manager of Tigers Makes Engagement Public.

Detroit, Mich., June 4.—Manager Hugh Jennings, of the Detroit American league team, admitted yesterday that he is engaged to be married to Miss O'Boyle, of Scranton, Pa.

"We intended to keep our engagement a secret for a long time," he said, "but the sporting editor of a Philadelphia newspaper, who was a friend of Miss O'Boyle's noticed my attention to her while she and her mother were in Philadelphia, surmised the truth and probably worried her until she admitted it."

THE HON. DAVID R. FRANCIS

National Figure for United States Senate.

Missouri Democrats are keenly alive to the knowledge that they can place in the United States senate a man who for years has been a national figure, and one who has filled many high posts with distinction, from that of mayor of St. Louis to that of secretary of the interior in President Cleveland's cabinet.

Missouri democrats are less disposed than ever to give their high offices to men of small attainments, for they realize that the state is great and needs just representation as such at Washington. It will take a big and able man such as David R. Francis to do justice to our fair state. Let's not send any boys to the mill.—Marceline Mirror.

THE CAUSE OF MISSIONS

To Cavil at the Work Is to Get in the Ignorant List.

Hon. Winston Churchill says: "Every penny presented to the cause of missions is a contribution to good government; every penny spent on missions saves the spending of pounds in administration, for missions bring peace and law and order."

Knowledge of this is what has brought about the laymen's movement and now for any one to cavil at foreign missions is to place themselves in the list of the ignorant and misinformed.

After the World Missionary conference in Edinburgh in June a party of Americans will cruise in the Mediterranean and visit American colleges, missions and hospitals in the near east.

MURDERED, THEN BURNED

Tragic Death of Chicago Janitor Is Indicated by Conditions.

Chicago, June 4.—Directly across the street from the Chicago Board of Trade, John Larsen, janitor of the Kent building, was killed early yesterday morning in his sleeping apartment. His charred body was found following a fire which did considerable damage to the structure.

Circumstances indicated that Larsen was beaten until he was senseless and that his assailant then set fire to the room, leaving the victim to die in the flames. From an adjoining building a short time previous Larsen had been heard in an angry colloquy with a man who had demanded money.

MISSOURI MELONS

CROP IN STATE FOR YEAR 1... AGGREGATED TOTAL OF 9,170,100 MELONS.

SOIL AND CLIMATE FAVORABLE

The Banner Growing Counties of the Commonwealth—Many Cantaloupes Are Also Raised and in Demand.

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

Jefferson City, June 4.—Large, luscious melons of the dark green variety which have made Georgia famous, are now grown in Missouri and to such an extent that millions are shipped out annually from the producing counties to the markets of St. Louis Kansas City. Chicago, Indianapolis, Milwaukee and other large northern central cities.

Advance figures from the 1910 Red Book of the bureau of labor statistics given publicity yesterday by Labor Commissioner J. C. A. Hiller, indicate that the watermelon crop of the 114 counties of Missouri for 1909 amounted to 9.170.100 melons, each large, lucious and delicious when properly iced and served in large slices, with the rich, red, tempting meat, thickly bespeckled with black seeds, turned up. It was probably the largest crop of melons Missouri has ever raised, and so great was the demand for them from the commercial centers that they could not be shipped out fast enough. With the prevailing price, at 10 cents apiece this vast crop of melons was worth $917,010, almost enough to make a millionaire out of any one who could have raised the entire crop alone.

So favorable is the climate and soil of Missouri for watermelons that about eighty counties produce more or less of them every year, but the majority only enough for home consumption. More would be raised if farmers only knew that there is a market for all that they can ship out, and it is safe to say that the wholesale price for melons will never again be under 7 cents, a profitable figure for growers.

The banner watermelon section of Missouri is the southeast, not many miles below Cape Girardeau. Three counties in that end—Scott. Mississipi and Dunklin—alone, in 1909 marketed a total of 4,470,000 melons, which at 10 cents sold for $447.000. With 500,000 melons coming from other counties in the same vicinity, this leaves about 4.200,000 melons for the remainder of the state, including those grown for home consumption. Farmers all along the Mississippi, Missouri, Gasconade, Osage and other streams with rich, sandy bottom lands, have melon patches which help to produce the remaining millions.

Scott county again leads all other counties for size and quantity of its melons. and sweetness, richness and redness of meat. In 1909, according to complication of Supervising Statistician A. T. Edmonston, it alone marketed 3,232,296 melons, worth at wholesale $324.229. From around the flourishing little city of Blodgett 1,180 cars of melons were shiped in that season, mostly to St. Louis and Chicago, where they appeased and put a finishing touch to a dainty meal. The melon centers in Scott county are Sikeston, Oran, Diehlstadt, Morley, McMullen. Benton, Vanduser and Brooks Junction.

The crop of Mississippi county for 1909 amounted to 450,255 melons, worth $45,025. In weight this mass of 'ruddy deliciousness" was 9,455 355 pounds. or 4,777 tons, enough to fill 378 cars of 25,000 pounds each. The producing centers were East Prairie, Howlett, Charleston and Bertrand.

Dunklin county, which is down in the "heel of Missouri," and is famous the world over for the high class of cotton grown there, is the second watermelon-producing county of Missouri. The shipments amounted to 777,550 melons. which at 10 cents each were worth $77,755. Most of these melons went north, many passing through St. Louis, on their way to Chicago and Milwaukee. Clarkton reported 186 cars for the season and Malden 145. Fisbee and Campbell and Phillips sent out a good supply.

In late years Missouri has gained fame for its watermelons, not that they have not always been sweet, large, red and rich. but because the growers discovered they would sell as well in Chicago, Cleveland, Indianapolis and Milwaukee as in St. Louis and Kansas City, and began shipping to those places. That is why the price per melon has steadily gone up, regardless of the fact that each year has seen an increased crop. They may call them "Georgia melons" in some northern cities, but the fact remains they were grown in old Missouri, and it matters not to the consumer. as they tasted the same, and he doesn't know the difference and he wouldn't care if he did, because he is getting the goods. "There is only one class of human beings not fond of them—the men and women who are afraid of getting their ears wet," was the declaration made on one occasion by a well known Chicago politician, and with that his face disappeared into the large quarter of a Missouri melon, until nothing but the top of his head was visible.

There is a rush of buyers to the watermelon centers of Missouri as soon as the crop is in shape to be marketed. Suddenly all becomes noisy and active, as the railroad companies, which have been collecting fruit cars at convenient places. back them into position. Every wagon and team of horses for miles around are pressed into service and expert watermelon handlers commence their work. Car after car is loaded, trains are made up and away goes the Missouri melons at forty miles an hour to the big cities. Fruit trains. like those carrying livestock, have the right of way over everything, except mail trains, and stop only when water is needed for the locomotives. The whirl and noise does not cease until the last melon has been loaded and the last car sealed. Then the growers count their money, take it to their bank and the balance of the year live in comfort and ease, with never a worry or want. Often the crop comes in so fast that the railroads can not supply cars enough. Then only the choice ones are loaded and rushed out. Many melons are broken in the rapid handling. They are fed to hogs and in that way produce about as much money.

The sugar and muskmelon and cantaloupe crop of Missouri is also an extensive item. amounting annually up into the thousands of crates and bringing in nearly as much as the watermelons. It is figured that 500.000 crates are raised each year in the 114 counties and marketed, bringing in about $500,000. The chief producing counties are St. Louis, Pemiscot, Mississippi, Scott, Dunklin. Callaway, Buchanan, Jackson, Clay, Greene. Pettis and St. Charles counties.

Added together, the melon crop of Missouri annually, when home consumption is included, is worth nearly a million and a half dollars, an industry which outside of three counties is only a side one.

For 1909, Morley, in Scott county, reported a shipment of thirty-two cars of cantaloupes. weighing 800.000 pounds, and Sikeston two cars, weighing 50,000.

For Dunklin county, Clarkton reported shipping twelve cars of cantaloupes in 1909, weighing 300,000 pounds, and Campbell seventeen cars weighing 425,000 pounds.

SOUGHT BY POLICE

CARETAKERS FOR COUNTRY PLACE

Were Asked to Put Up a Deposit of $200—Number of People Were Victimized Out of Various Sums of Cash.

New York, June 6.—Extraordinary efforts are being made by the police to capture a man who for several weeks has been swindling persons in this city by means of advertisements in the "Help Wanted" columns of newspapers. His swindle is of the meanest sort, for he works on the credulity of poor persons who have a few dollars saved. He has obtained several hundred dollars from his dupes.

The swindler began operations by advertising for a man to take charge of his country home in Tuxedo during his absence in Europe. He represented that he was connected with the Buden family of this city, using the name of H. W. Buden.

He received many replies to his advertisements and directed those who sought the position to meet him at the Hotel Manhattan. This was after he had previously interviewed the applicants at their homes and questioned them as to their financial status. Those who had no money were not invited to the hotel.

To those who did call, the man made the position particularly inviting. He declared there was practically no work to be done; that they merely had to live on the premises and would have the use of the hot house, truck garden products and horses and carriages.

But he wanted to be careful in selecting a man and wife, because last year, his story ran, he left a couple in his place and on his return found it had been so abused that it cost him several hundred dollars to repair the damage. For that reason, he said, any couple who wanted the position, with a salary of $90 a month, would have to leave with him a deposit of $200 as a guarantee that the property would not be damaged.

He found numerous victims, although in no case, so far as known, did he get the full amount of the deposit. In one instance, it is said, he got $100 from an aged woman who fainted when informed that she had been swindled. In another case he got $25 and the victim called again to pay the remainder, but the man had flown.

The man is described as about 50 years old, stocky and erect in build, with brown hair, a round, pleasant face, blue eyes and a prominent scar on the right side of his neck.

SOME HEAT AT PHOENIX

Sunday, May 29th, the Mercury Registered 114 Degrees.

Mrs. Edna Burrowes Reeder, who is now living at Phoeniz, Arizona, sends the Democrat-Sentinel the following clipping from the Republican of May 31:

"All heat records for the month of May, since the establishment of the weather bureau in 1895, were broken Sunday and again Monday.

"The hottest day that Phoenix has ever known, or rather that the bureau has record of, was July 3, 1907, when the mercury aviated to 117.

"Yesterday the weather bureau thermometer registered just three degrees less than this, or 114, which is going some for a balmy May day.

"Previous to last Sunday the hottest day in May was in 1906, when on the 8th the mercury soared to 110. The highest record for May 30 was in 1903, when it stood at 106.

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and pangs of this deplorable disease.

In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I ... fully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, it uniformly cures all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. Those sand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend

IN MASS MEETING

STRIKING MACHINISTS OF MISSOURI PACIFIC SHOPS MET FRIDAY NIGHT.

THEIR SIDE OF CONTROVERSY

Told to Large Audience in Sedalia Theater—J. D. Buckalew, Vice President of National Association, Was Speaker.

(From Sunday's Daily)

There was a mass meeting held at the Sedalia theater Friday night, the purpose of which was to give the striking machinists of the Missouri Pacific shops an opportunity to explain their side of the controversy to the public, giving the causes of the strike and the present situation. There was a large crowd in attendance, the lower floor of the large opera house being packed and the balcony comfortably filled. A. L. Pringle, a member and former president of the machinists' local lodge, presided at the meeting, and the speaker of the evening was J. D. Buckalew, vice president of the International Association of Machinists, whose office and headquarters is in Washington, D. C.

Members of the machinists' lodge and their families were seated on the stage and their presence gave every indication of the sincerity of the men. Mr. Buckalew made a very interesting talk which was well received by the audience ,and he plainly stated the men's position in an able and straightforward manner. A synopsis of his address follows:

"The controversy between the machinists and the Missouri Pacific Railway company is one of vital importance to the citizens of Sedalia and one that every citizen should know of, and when they hear our side of the case I feel confident they will bear with us and agree that we are right when we refuse conditions that will in a measure decrease our earnings, instead of increasing them, as many have been made to believe.

"One of the main causes of this strike is the insistence on the part of the railroad company that the men work what is known as a 'twelve hour lap shift.' Our order has had contract agreements with the company for the last nine years, and in each agreement the working hours of our men were plainly stated; but now the company attempts to force upon us a system of rules under which our men can be called upon to go to work at any time and work the full nine hours. Under that system the company could demand that part of our men go to work at a certain hour, say, at 6 o'clock in the morning, and work until 4 o'clock in the afternoon; another set of men go to work at 7 o'clock and work until 5 o'clock, and another set of men from 8 until 6 o'clock, and so on. This system is very objectionable to our men, and no other road in the country is working its men under that plan. The men on this road worked regular hours until the strike was called, and all worked the same hours, under the system known as 'bulletin hours,' and so are the men now working who took the strikers' places. Some of the company's officials claim that the company never intended to adopt the 'lap system' except in round houses and then to make it apply only to night men, but the agreement offered the men by the company did not so state; and, to the contrary, under the proposed system the men could be required go to work at any time of the day or night, and this system would be very objectionable to the men and it would be hard to keep a good class of machinists working under such conditions. The company also proposed to make men work the standard work day instead of bulletin hours. This would make a machinist, no matter at what hour he might be called to work, to work full nine hours before he would be entitled to overtime. This, no other road asks the men to do.

"The other serious objection is the company's proposed clause in the agreement relating to apprentices. Under our old agreement and previous agreements the company employed one apprentice to each shop and one additional apprentice to each five machinists employed in such shop; but under the charge insisted upon by the company they would be allowed to employ one apprentice to every five machinists employed on the system, thus applying the ratio to the entire system instead of to each shop.Under that system the company could place all of its apprentices employed on the entire system in one shop; and while it might be working the men shorter hours over the system, generally, yet they could have all the apprentices at one shop and work them full time and have them do machinist's work at greatly reduced wages.

"The condition of the rolling stock of the company is very much run down and very little prospects of getting repairs made. The company has a lot of men employed, but very few of them are skilled mechanics. Besides, many of them claim they did not come here to work—they were hired as strike breakers. And the strike breakers are a class of men who are of no benefit to any community. The men employed here do not spend one single cent in Sedalia. They eat and sleep on the company's right of way, their food being furnished under contract by persons who do not patronize the merchants of Sedalia in the least, but ship all provisons used; and the company furnishes the strike breakers their clothes and tobacco in most instances, and, we have been reliably informed, pays them forty-one cents per hour. Then, too, the strike breakers are a class of men who do not remain in one place any length of time. As soon as the strike is settled, whether won, lost or compromised, the strike breakers are sent to some other strike scene: they are not the class of mechanics the company wants when they can get competent men.

"The strikers are sorry that the officers of this city have left the impression that the strikers are disturbers of the peace. They have not at any time made any trouble or disturbed any one's peace, but on the other hand the strike breakers have attacked our men and apprentices and driven them down the streets. No one interfered with them in an official way. We feel that the strike can and will be settled in a short time, and that the citizens of Sedalia should do all in their power to keep the old men here instead of assisting the company in driving them back to work in the shops under the above conditions or forcing them to move out of the community.

"There is a false impression current in Sedalia to the effect that the strike was caused by the company only offering to raise the men's wages from 36 to 39 cents per hour when the men demanded 40 cents That is not the fact at all. It was not caused by a money consideration in any way, but on account of the company demanding that the men accept working rules and conditions that would work serious hardships upon themselves and make their earning capacities much less than under the old agreement. The men have all the time been and now are willing and ready to accept the three cents per hour increase in wages offered by the company and return to work if permitted to do so under the old shop rules which have been in force for the last several years. And I sincerely trust that the citizens of Sedalia, who take an interest in the city and its citizenship, will see this controversy in its true light and get together and use their influence to see that the company deals fairly with the men and gives them an honorable settlement, and does not try to impose upon 200 citizens of Sedalia and their families the hardships above outlined.

S.S.S. CURES OLD SORES

"I CAN TRUTHFULLY SAY S.S.S. IS A CERTAIN CURE FOR OLD SORES, BECAUSE IT CURED ME OF A BAD ULCER, ON WHICH OTHER TREATMENTS HAD NO EFFECT."

This extract from the testimonial we publish below, will receive the endorsement of thousands of other persons who have used S. S. S. for sores and ulcers.

Every old sore comes from some kind of impurity in the blood. S. S. S. cures on the simple principle of removing the cause of the sore or ulcer and allowing nature to heal the place. When we think for a moment we realize that every portion of the body and system is dependent on the blood; that it is the circulation which nourishes all flesh tissues, and preserves their natural health. Thus we can readily understand why impurities or poisons in this vital fluid will infect and disease the flesh at some particular spot, and by continually discharging impurities into it, keep the place open, raw or inflamed. It would be against every law of reason to expect the sore to heal while the blood constantly deposits into it the infectious matter with which it is contaminated.

There is a simple way to cure old sores, and it is the only way—remove the cause from the circulation. External applications of liniments, plasters, lotions, salves, etc., can never produce a cure, because such treatment does not reach the blood, where the cause is located.

S. S. S. heals old sores because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers; it goes into the circulation and removes the cause from the blood. When the blood has been purified there is no longer any inflammatory impurity or infectious matter to irritate the place, and nature causes the natural and certain healing of the ulcer. When S.S.S. has cleansed the blood and the place is once more well, it is not a surface cure, every vestige of the old cause has been driven out and the place is solidly and firmly healed from the bottom to the surface. S. S. S. is made entirely of healing, cleansing roots, herbs and barks, and contains no trace of mineral. It is a medicine adapted to persons of any age, and is just as effective with the old as with the young or middle aged.

I can truthfully say S. S. S. is a certain cure for Old Sores, because it cured me of a bad ulcer, on which other treatments had no effect. Five years ago a running sore came on my limb. I tried everything I could hear of, but the sore grew worse. Even the doctors could not heal it. A friend finally told me to try S. S. S., so I did and in the meantime wrote you for advice. I followed your instructions and took S. S. S. regularly. My leg began to improve, gradually the place healed over and began to look healthy, and finally the sore was cured entirely. I believe S. S. S. to be the best blood purifier one can use. I gladly recommend it as a cure for sores and ulcers.
Rockford, Wash. A. S. LACY.

Under the purifying and tonic effects of S. S. S. the system is built up, and those whose health has been weakened by the drain of an old sore will be doubly benefited by its use. If you wish to know anything specially about your case write us. We will answer you fully, and will also send our book on Sores and Ulcers—no charge for either book or advice. W.O.W. MEMORIAL

ANNUAL UNVEILING CEREMONIES WERE HELD SUNDAY AFTERNOON.

A VAST THRONG IN ATTENDANCE

Sedalia Camp No. 16 and Queen City Grove No. 1, Woodmen Circle, Unveiled Monuments to Deceased Members.

(From Monday's Daily)

In the presence of the largest assemblage ever gathered on a similar occasion in this city, Sedalia camp No. 16, Woodmen of the World, and Queen City grove No. 1, Woodmen Circle, held the annual unveiling ceremonies of the order at Crown Hill cemetery Sunday afternoon.

A conservative estimate of the day's attendance placed the crowd at three thousand, although to many it appeared that there were many more thousands present.

Members of the Woodmen and Woodmen Circle began assembling at the hall shortly after 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon, but it was 2 o'clock before the procession started.

The line of march, which was led by the Second Regiment band, formed at the hall, in the Cassidy building, and passed east on Fifth street to Engineer avenue, thence to the cemetery.

The day was ideal for the occasion, and when the procession reached Crown Hill cemetery the place was almost filled with Sedalians, men, women and children, who hurried there ahead of the procession in order to witness the ceremonies.

The speakers of the day occupied open carriages in the fore part of the procession, followed by the members of the drill team of Sedalia camp and the Boys of Woodcraft of Clinton.

Members of the Woodmen, walking, followed, after which came the members of the Woodmen Circle in carriages, followed by numerous private conveyances.

At the cemetery Judge D. E. Kennedy delivered the address for the Woodmen, the poem being recited by W. W. Blain.

Mrs. Ada A. Smith delivered the address for the Woodmen Circle, and the poem for that order was read by Mrs. Cora B. Baker.

The flower committee, consisting of seven members, decorated the graves of the deceased sovereigns during the forenoon.

En route to the cemetery the band rendered appropriate music, also at the cemetery just before the day's ceremonies began.

Among the throngs to attend were many from Clinton, Warsaw and other nearby towns, Clinton sending the largest delegation, including its drill team.

A Storekeeper Says:

"A lady came into my store lately and said:

"'I have been using a New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove all winter in my apartment. I want one now for my summer home. I think these oil stoves are wonderful. If only women knew what a comfort they are, they would all have one. I spoke about my stove to a lot of my friends, and they were astonished. They thought that there was smell and smoke from an oil stove, and that it heated a room just like any other stove. I told them of my experience, and one after another they got one, and now, not one of them would give hers up for five times its cost.'"

The lady who said this had thought an oil stove was all right for quickly heating milk for a baby, or boiling a kettle of water, or to make coffee quickly in the morning, but she never dreamed of using it for difficult or heavy cooking. Now—she knows.

Do you really appreciate what a New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove means to you? No more coal to carry, no more coming to the dinner table so tired out that you can't eat. Just light a Perfection Stove and immediately the heat from an intense blue flame shoots up to the bottom of pot, kettle or oven. But the room isn't heated. There is no smoke, no smell, no outside heat, no drudgery in the kitchen where one of these stoves is used.

Cautionary Note: Be sure you get this stove—see that the name-plate reads "New Perfection."

HARRY SUTER TO FRISCO

(From Monday's Daily)

George Suter, the plumber, today received a telegram from his son, Harry Suter, a member of the Chicago American league team pitching staff, saying that he had been sold to the Frisco club of the Pacific coast league, with which team he played before going to Chicago.

Harry has been playing bench almost the entire season, and in the meantime Chicago was losing game after game. Surely the Sedalian could not have made a worse showing than Scott, Walsh and the other old-timers.

Harry should be glad of the change, for he will get a chance to work with Frisco, and Comiskey may rue the day that he made the sale.

The stench from the offal is something awful, Mr. Sullivan says, and he will attempt to convince a Pettis county jury of the alleged fact.
